NEWS CLIPPINGS Of SARAH V. HILL MCMILLION

1894-1942

Wade and Sarah Hill McMillion with sons, Clarence, Rufus and Theodore.

When cleaning up the farm house in Jacox, we came upon a box of news clippings that Sarah had saved along with a letter.

Sarah V Hill was born 38 July 1870 to Doctor Chaney Hill and Nancy Jane Morrison Hill. She died 17 April 1949 at home in Jacox, Pocahontas County, West Virginia.

Sarah married Wade Hampton McMillion, son of Joseph and Ruth Catherine Nunley in 1893. She taught for awhile and from 1912 until 1943 she was the Postmistress of the Jacox Post Office. We still have the desk which held mail and stamps.

Sarah was the grandmother of Wanda McMillion, sister of Bobby Long.

Following is a copy of a letter that was with the box. The family thought to honor Sarah we would type all the clippings into a small book.

We have recently located much more clippings, and if there is an interest, we will type up those also.

OBITUARY

Died at Blue Sulphur Springs, this county on Friday August 11th, 1893. Little Eva, the only child of Lewis and Susie B Knapp, aged 6 months and 21 days. She was a bright and interesting child—the joy and sunshine of her home—a jewel lent, not given, to her fond parents. She is a bright beacon in the land of bliss to guide them safely home. Constant attention of friends and tender care of loving parents could not keep her here. God claimed another gem and called little Eva to her home in Glory to wait the coming of those who loved her.

All robed in white and decked with flowers, We laid her in her tomb, The flower that bloomed so sweetly here No more on earth shall bloom.

But in our hearts we lay her up
And love her all the more.
Nay, nay, dear parents, she's not dead,
Although she slumbers
And cold and still, her marble brow
Is free from care and pain.

She is not dead, for Jesus died That she might live again.

Her little lamp—it soon went out On lifetime's bounded shore:

But angels bright, in Heaven again, Relighted it once more......F.B.

OBITUARY "Though dead, she yet liveth."

Died at her home, on Knapp's Creek, Pocahontas County, on February 16th, 1896, Mrs. KATE R. MOORE, aged 34 years, beloved wife of Hon. I. B. MOORE and eldest daughter of Mr. And Mrs. WILLIAM. CURRY, of Huntersville. She left a husband and eight children to mourn their sad loss. Not only is a gloom cast over her beautiful and once happy home, but over the entire community. For to know her was a love her. In her were displayed the varied graces of the dutiful daughter, the affectionate wife, the tender mother and the zealous Christian. Besides a most amiable sweetness of temper she possessed a mind cultivated with useful learning and knowledge. Her greatest ornament was her devout and religious temper. She sought her highest enjoyment in doing good, in peace of mind and in the hope of a better life. It was God's Will to take her while yet young. It has been said that death loves a shining mark, truly it has been verified in this instance, and another star has been added to the Savior's crown. She bore her suffering so patiently-not a murmur escaped her lips. When her children were summoned to her dying bedside a heavenly smile lit up her face, and in a clear, sweet, musical voice, she gave them her dying blessing, and told them to meet her in heaven. She, then, bade each member of her family an affectionate farewell, and then with perfect composure, without even a sigh, sweetly fell asleep in Jesus.

Never was a community so heavily darkened by the draperies of woe or hearts so wrung with anguish as when on Monday evening, November 30th, 1903, it was announced that death had entered the home of Mr. J. E. McMILLION of Trout, this county, and laid his icy hand on the form of his only daughter, Miss L. IVA McMILLION. Born March 27th 1885, she was yet in her 18th year. With the garland of youth upon her brow, the darling of parents, a lovely girl whose beauty was like that of an unfolding flower, loved by all who knew her,—it seemed impossible that such a charming one should be taken from our minds. Suddenly, as if lightning had flashed from a clear sky, a fatal sickness smote her, and she was not, for God had taken her. She had just recovered from a severe attack of measles when she was taken ill with pneumonia. And although everything was done that kind hands and affectionate hearts could do, the summons of God was not to pass unheeded, and while twilight was deepening into darkness she closed her eyes in that peaceful sleep "from which none ever wake to weep. Tender and blameless in her social relations, devoted to her friends, affectionate in the family, her life will be cherished as an example worthy of emulation. Miss Iva has gone nearer the Eternal Light—has crossed the lowland to dwell on the mountain top. Of her immediate family she leaves a father, mother, three brothers, and a host of grief-stricken friends to mourn the loss of an only daughter and a dear friend. On Wednesday December 2nd, after an appropriate prayer by the grave side, her mortal remains were tenderly consigned to the earth in the cemetery at McMillion's Chapel to await the resurrection, A Friend.

Died, at her home near Dunmore, Mrs MARY WOODSEY MOORE, wife of Sheriff E. N. MOORE, a daughter of the late JOHN W WARWICK and Mrs. CAROLINE CRAIG WARWICK, June 6, 1903. Mrs Moore was born at Dunmore, October 28th, 1855. Her education was mainly in home schools and became highly accomplished. She was a successful teacher of public schools for several years and among her pupils was the undersigned who was taught to read by her and received from her some of the impulses for aspiring to advanced education. She seems not to have known when she did not love Christ, and very soon was her heart inclined to piety. Very early in life she became a communicant, and possessed the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, and was by common consent regarded a model character in all the relations of life. She is survived by her husband and six daughters and one son. Miss Emma WARWICK and Mrs MAGGIE LOCKRIDGE were her sisters. Her health having failed, it was deemed advisable for her to enter the Maryland General Hospital a few months since, where a successful surgical operation was performed, and her convalescence was so favorable that she was dismissed from the hospital, with every reason to believe that her useful life would be prolonged. Soon after reaching home, a few weeks since, a complication of ailments developed and there was a sudden collapse, and death ensued. She died, however, in full possession of her faculties, sweetly and peacefully as a little child soothed to rest in a mothers arms. The night before her death she called her family about her and bade each one her final farewell, and endeavored to soothe and comfort them, and besought them to live Christian lives and be faithful to the end, and all would meet again. She had written out a statement of her expectation of death, expressing her firm reliance in her Redeemer, and giving instructions of what she wished to be done in matters pertaining to the comfort of her family, should she be called away. The ruling principle of her life was not to do anything simply because it might be popular or expedient when she believed it was contrary to whatever was right. Whatever may be done by others to perpetuate her memory, she had really erected her own monument, an instance in which the character of the builder has passed into the structure and that is her family. It was her unfailing custom to gather her children about her and instruct them in the Bible and Catechism. Her well worn Bible with her favorite scriptures marked is a more eloquent tribute to her Christian character than words can express. "Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all." "Favor is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised." "Give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates." —(Proverbs xxxi, 29, 31.) H. W. M.

Of our departed mother in Israel, Mrs. ELLEN LITTLE, wife of the lamented THOMAS LITTLE, who served with honor and distinguished ability in the first Legislature of West Virginia at the time from the County of Mercer in 1863, and also in 1865, 1866, and 1867, taking an active part in all of the progressive affairs of his county, until he fell asleep in Jesus, in 1893. Mother LITTLE departed this life January 13, 1904, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. MILES J. SIZEMORE near Joe's Branch. Deceased was nearly 85 years of age. The writer had often visited her home during the life of her good husband in the earlier years of his ministerial work. It was the welcome abode and resting place for the weary toiler in her Master's vineyard. Possibly for 70 years she had been a professed follower of our Lord Jesus Christ, and a strict member of the M. E. Church. The aim of her long, useful life was to glorify God, and to raise her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Being the mother of ten, six sons and four daughters, a part of whom, like the affectionate husband, had long preceded her to the better world, she leaves four sons and two daughters to mourn, but not as those who have no hope. As the fruit and reward of her long, arduous labors, she saw with joy and gladness her four sons enter upon a long and useful life. WILLIAM H. Has been an exhorted about 45 years. RALPH R. For 30 years in the ministry, four years of that time as presiding elder. Hiram has been a local preacher for over 26 years and Prof. T. G. LITTLE, a graduate from one of the business colleges of Ohio, is now principal of the business department of the Normal at Athens, W. Va. All are members of the church of their mother's choice. How blessed the vision of dying saints! Mother Little spoke of being with some of her long departed friends, for days before she left. Her great desire was to see and meet all her dear children and friends in heaven. It was the closing thought of her life, that when the cord that bound a long useful religious life to earth was severed, the veil was lifted, the soul on angel pinions winged its way to that rest that remains for the people of God, to wait in reunion of loved ones, and the resurrection of the just through our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Ma God ever bless the children and loved ones. W. H. H. COOK.

Mrs. LETHA MORRISON wife of ALVIN MORRISON, departed this life at her home on Short Mountain, near Leonard, W.Va. On January 4, 1902, after an illness of three weeks, aged 20 years, 1 month and 19 days.. She was converted and joined the church in her fourteenth year and remained faithful to her Master's cause till in His goodness He saw fit to call her from this life of sorrow to one of rest. She realized that death was near and although she desired to live to care for her infant babe she expressed herself as ready to answer the Master's call when it should come; and on her deathbed sang his praises. She leaves a husband and an infant boy, age three weeks, besides many other friends to mourn her early death. Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep.s.m.. October 21, 1903, Mr. And Mrs. LUCY SYDENSTRICKER of Athens, W. Va. were bereaved of their little daughter, Adella, aged over two years and their only child. The ailment was spinal Meningitis in form so virulent as to baffle all possible attention and medical skill. Adella's grandparents are Dr. And Mrs. D. S. Sydenstricker of Hillsboro, and to them and the sorely bereaved young parents our sincere sympathies are tendered along with their many friends in West Virginia and Vermont, "It is well with the child? And she answered it is well." -BIBLE W. T. P.

Mrs. CATHERINE KELLISON, wife of Clark KELLISON, died at her home on Dry Branch of Swago, aged 54 years. Mrs. KELLISON was a very worthy person, a descendant by the third removed of Moses Moore, one of the noted pioneers of our county. She was a professor of religion from childhood and a fervent consistent member of the M. E. Church for forty or more years she had been a great sufferer, all of which she endured with becoming resignation to the divine will. –bco-s.......

Divine Will. Quite recently she consented to a critical surgical operation, and for a time it seemed she was in a hopeful way to recovery, but i5 pleased the Heavenly Father to will it otherwise and she went hence, to be no more with husband and children and friends. It will long be remembered as a grief giving day when this good woman was borne to her grave in the Clunen burying ground there to wait the everlasting morn. The writer and very many others fee that they have been bereaved of a faithful and very helpful friend, and would keep her name in lasting remembrance and embalm her memory with all their hearts can give their praises and their tears.

RUTH, the youngest child of Mr. And Mrs. WIN TODD near Loveridge, died February 7th, 1902, aged 18 months.

LINCOLN ELLIS, infant child of ALVIN MORRISON, died on January 16th, 1902.

On Wednesday, April 22nd, 1903, in Hillsboro, Pocahontas County, by Rev. Charles LYNCH. Mr. N. C. B. KENNISON and Miss FANNIE HAYES, both of this county. (Nothing More).

NANNIE WICKLINE MYERS, daughter of D. S. And MARY E. WICKLINE, was born near Gap Mills, Monroe County, W. Va., October 26, 1901. Her parents moved to Sweet Chalybeate Springs, Alleghany County, VA., when she was but a little girl. She was converted and united herself with the Methodist Episcopal church at the age of 16, and was married to Rev. C. B. MYERS, of the M. E. Church, in the autumn of 1888. During the remainder of Mrs. MYERS' mortal life she was the wife of an itinerant minister. The last two years of her life were spent in connection with the Master's work in Tennessee, and the former years in the bounds of the Virginia Conference. On Bro. MYERS' different fields of labor his devoted wife stood by him faithfully to the last moment, and from the date of her conversion she was a model Christian. She was faithful to all the means of grace and was loved and revered by her large circle of friends acquaintances, to know and was loved and revered by her large circle of friends acquaintances to know her was to highly esteem and love her. She aways was in readiness to "read her title clear to mansions in the Skies," so when death came suddenly and unexpectedly she was ready to go. "To Father's house on high, Where the many mansions are,"and triumphantly left the church Militant to join the choir. Nearing her last moments on earth, she requested her brokenhearted husband to bring their five precious children she left behind to heaven with him. When she could not talk she looked up to heaven and smiled, as much as to say, "we will talk when we meet up there." The bright light has gone out of that home and the shades of death have for a short time hidden, so bright and fair she is waiting, watching at the Beautiful Gate to beckon the loved ones home.

Then sleep, sweet sister, sleep
The grave, thy form may keep,
And friends may O' er thee weep,
But thou art blest;
Thy spirit pure and bright,
Far, far from mortal sight,
Has reached the plains of light,
In heaven to rest.

In blessed sweet surprise
Thy body, too, shall rise,
To mansions in the skies
Forevermore:
In heaven we hope to meet,
Each other gladly greet,
Lay all at Jesus' feet,
And Him adore.

Mrs. MARY M HILL, wife of JOEL O. HILL, died at his home in Lobelia, Pocahontas County, on Tuesday, April 7th, 1903, of heart failure, aged 55 years, 7 months, and 24 days. She was long a member of the M. E. Church, having joined that denomination in early life. She leaves a husband and four children, - 1 daughter and 3 sons. The Funeral was conducted by Rev. C. M. ANDERSON and the remains were laid to rest in the Hill graveyard near Lobelia. She leaves a host of friends in Greenbrier and other counties as well as in her home neighborhood.

Mrs. MINNIE D. FULTZ, beloved wife of Rev. C. M. Fultz, departed this life September 19th, 1901, at the late residence of her father, Mr. F. DEVER, on Knapps Creek, Pocahontas County, W. Va., aged 31 years, 1 month, and 20 days, having been born July 29th 1870. She was married to Rev. C. M. M. Fultz on the 21st day November 1894. She leaves a beloved husband and a bright little son, aged above five years to mourn her loss, as well as a large number of relatives, friends and acquaintances; but their loss is her eternal gain. At the age of fifteen years she embraced religion and continued a faithful christian until the end of her life, always demonstrating in her life, always demonstrating in her life, character and social relations, that refined, elevated, uplifting, and pure christian character, which is so commendable and praiseworthy in life's struggle for victory. She was very strongly attached to the peoples living in the vicinity of the parsonage, located near the Morgan Memorial Church, in Greenbrier County, and requested that her body be buried there, which was done on Saturday, the 21st in the presence of a large concourse of sympathizing friends, the writer of these lines officiating. Her life and intercourse with all with whom she came in contact, was of the most conservative and refined character, and in its work resulted in a complete victory over death, dying as she did, with one of life's slow destroyers, she had full opportunity to set her house in order, and talked of and made arrangements of her affairs with as much calmness and serenity as if she was only going on a journey, and when very near the end she was asked by her husband how the future then appeared to her, she replied with a smile on her countenance: "It is all sunshine; I am ready. Tell my friends at Morgan Memorial they will know where to find me." Life's partings are sad, but are largely received by the consoling truths based on the Christian religion, as enjoyed by those who humbly and faithfully live by its precepts. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." -Ps. 116:15. G. P. M.

The sweet words of quietness and promise of the poet. "Are you growing weary? There's be resting by-and-by." was truly verified when on the morning of September 25, 1906, Mrs. JULIA A McMILLION. Of near Loveridge, was permitted to leave the sufferings and troubles of this life and to enter into the rest that God has prepared for His own. She had been sufferer for two years from complicated ailments, and for the past few months had been confined to her bed. During her illness she testified to the writer of her readiness to depart when the summons should come, and although we mourn her departure, we mourn not as those who have no hope. The deceased was aged 56 years, 3 months, and 15 days. She leaves to mourn her decease, a husband, JOHN T. McMILLION, a son, Russell, and a daughter, Mrs. DAISY SIZEMORE, also two brothers, seven sisters and a great many other relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Atkinson, and her body was consigned to the ground in the graveyard near Beulah Church, there to await the great resurrection. May God comfort the hears of all the bereaved ones. M.

IN MEMORIAM.

We bent today O'er a coffined form And our tears fell softly down,

We looked our last on the aged face
With its look of peace, its patient grace,
And hair like a silver crown.

At her home at Loveridge, West Virginia, on January 11th, 1902, Mrs. ELIZA MORRISON, wife of DAVID MORRISON, aged 61 years and 17 days. She had been greatly afflicted for years, but for the last few weeks had been suffering with dropsy, which added to her other sufferings, was more than her feeble body could endure, and her Heavenly Father called her up higher, to enter into that rest which he has promised to His faithful followers. She bore her sufferings with marked fortitude, but in the last days of her earthly life prayed that the Lord would take her from this life of sorrow, and she remarked to friends that were with her a few nights before her death, that she hoped the Lord would come that night. She had no fears of death and told friends before her last serious sickness that she was spiritually ready to go at any time. She was the mother of four children, two of whom have preceded her to the glory land, and two daughters, Mrs. LIZZIE NEESE of Chance, MD, and Mrs. Lovie Clark, of Loveridge, W.Va. Who are left with her husband, several grandchildren and a host of other friends, to mourn their loss; but they mourn not as those who have no hope, for if they follow her Christian example they shall meet her after while when their life's work is done, in a land where there is no sorrow. Her body was laid to rest in a land where there is no sorrow. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at McMillion Chapel, there to await the great resurrection.

One by one the bonds are severed,
Binding hearts together here,
One by one new ties are added.
To that land that knows no fear. S. V. M.

CLARENCE FOSSE, eldest child of Mr. And Mrs. TINKER A. McMILLION, died near Loveridge, W.Va., January 10th 1902, aged 4 years and some months. Fosse was a bright little boy, loved by all his friends and almost idolized by his parents, and his death is therefore a very sad stroke to that home. In his childish, prattling way he had talked to his parents, more than once before his death, as if he knew that he was going to leave them soon. Fosse is now a bright flower in the fields of Heaven, and may the parents prepare so that when they are called to go they may be ready and go to meet their darling boy.

One less at home.

The charmed circle broken-a dear face, Missed day by day from it's accustomed place But cleaned and saved and perfected by grace

One more in Heaven! - One more at home.

That home where separation cannot be,

That home where none are missed eternally,

Lord Jesus, grant us all a place with thee, At home in Heaven.

After a painful illness of several weeks, Mr. HENRY N CLARK, of Pocahontas County, departed this life on the evening of April 24th, 1902. Mr. Clark had not enjoyed good health for several years, but scarcely ever would succumb to his sufferings and remain in-doors. A few days before his death he was able to ride out for awhile on horseback, but on Wednesday suffered a relapse, and although a physician was quickly called and he received the best attention, he had arrived at the bounds which no man can pass, and on Thursday evening he entered into the rest which is prepared for the people of God. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for quite a number of years, and on the day of his death testified to his readiness to go. Mr. Clark was born September 8th, 1836, and was united in marriage to Miss MARY E. LOVERIDGE, at Staunton, Va., September 20, 1858, who with five sons survive him. Mr. Clark was well and widely known throughout Pocahontas and adjoining counties, and had many friends over whose lives his death will cast sorrow. He did not amass a great fortune, but was a man who would deprive himself of comfort and pleasure to be able to assist a fellow creature. He was very active for his years and went about in his neighborhood a great deal, and being a well learned man his advice was sought by many. His body, accompanied by friends, was taken to the family burial grounds in the Levels and there laid away to await the great resurrection, after appropriate exercises conducted by Rev. D. S. Sydenstricker assisted by Rev. C. M. M. Fultz.

One by one the Savior calls us, In His perfect bliss to share; May we for the call be ready, Oh, may none be missing there.

The vicinity of Loveridge, W.Va., suffered the loss of one of its ancient landmarks in the death of Mr. GEORGE BROWN, who departed this earthly life, June 18th, 1902, at the advanced age of 77 years, 10 months, from the afflictions, and infirmities of old age. He leaves four sons and four daughters, several grandchildren a great many other relatives and friends to mourn his departure, but the gathering time for him had come and the scripture text: "Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season," has been well illustrated inhis decease. He sought and found, in his youth, that peace which cometh from knowing Christ, and united with the M. E. Church in which he remained a member until this earthly tabernacle was dissolved and he went to join the church triumphant. The funeral exercises were conducted at his home by Rev. J. S. Wickline, assisted by Revvs. C. M. M. Fultz and A. M. Chappell. The passage of scripture upon which Rev. WICKLINE based his funeral remarks, was Rev. 14th chapter and 13th verse, from which he delivered some very appropriate remarks, after which his body, accompanied by many relatives and friends, was conveyed to the graveyard near Beulah Church, where it was laid to rest by the side of this wife, who many years ago had crossed over to the other side and with some children was there awaiting his coming.

"Life's labor done, as sinks the clay, Light from its load the spirit flies, While heaven and earth combine to say, How blest the righteous when he dies."

The vicinity of Loveridge and Leonard, Greenbrier County, was painfully shocked on the morning of Thursday, April 24th, 1902, when the news was spread abroad that ALVIN MORRISON had been found dead in his bed by his daughter Fannie his daughter, Fannie. His only living child. Mr. Morrison had not been feeling well during the day but had been at work on his place. Before retiring that night he had complained of a severe pain in his left arm, and after lying down remarked to his daughter, his only companion that he did not believe he could sleep any on account of the pain, but next morning he was found to be enjoying that blessed sleep which knows no waking in this said world of sorrow and care. Mr. MORRISON was in his 43rd year. He had gone through the deep waters of trouble, having lost by death two wives and four children, having but one binding earthly tie, his young daughter, who is now left a lonely orphan. But God is more able to care for her than any earthly parent. Mr. Morrison had been a professing Christian for several years and had been faithful to his profession, and was to church on Sunday before his death. He leaves two brothers, eight sisters and many friends to mourn his departure, but not as those without hope. May it be more deeply impressed upon our minds that, "Death enters, and there's no defense, His time there's none can tell." Funeral exercises were conducted at his home by Rev. C. M. M. Fultz, after which his body was conveyed to the burial ground and laid to rest near the bodies of his last wife and three of his children. M.

"In the midst of life we are in death." How very true this seems to us all as we meditate on the death of our neighbor Mr. THOMAS HANNA, who departed this life at his home on Rock Camp Branch of Spring Creek, Greenbrier County, on Sunday afternoon, July 24th 1904, aged 35 years, after a five weeks struggle with typhoid fever. Mr. Hanna had many things which to us would seem very binding to this life, especially his affectionate wife and three lovely children, one boy and two girls; but God knows best, and we commit the widow and orphans to the care of Him who has promised to care for the widow and the fatherless. S. M.

That dread visitor, consumption, stole into the home of Mr. James McCLURE, of Loveridge, and claimed for its victim, Miss QUEEN, the eldest daughter, in her 22d year, who, after many weeks of weary struggling after health, yielded up her life on early Sunday morning, July 24th, 1904. The writer has been informed that while on her sick bed she expressed her willingness to depart when the summons should come. After appropriate services, her body was laid to res in the graveyard near Beulah Church.

On Saturday, September 17th, 1904, as the shades of night were giving place to morning light, our neighbor, Mr. JAMES E WALTON, of Rock Camp branch of Spring Creek, this county, received the summons that cometh to all mankind, and departed into the Great Beyond. Mr. Walton was nearly 55 years of age, and had been seriously ill for a week previous to his death. He leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his departure. We point them to the special promise of God regarding the widow and orphan. S. M.

MARRIED.

The home of Mr. And Mrs. THOS. M. TAYLOR, of Loveridge, was the scene of a quiet social event on Wednesday, January 8th, 1908, when their daughter, Miss MELVINA PERRY, became the wife of Rev. DANIEL T. THARP. The solemn ceremony was performed by Rev. John PERRY, of CLAWSON, the bride's brother. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations of friends the bridal party and guests partook of the bounteous dinner which had been prepared for the occasion and it is needless to say that all did ample justice to all the good things. The bride was modestly but becomingly attired in cream brilliantine, and looked happy. Many friends wish both bride and groom all that a true marriage really implies. The bride was the recipient of some nice and useful gifts. M.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST DIES.

Wm. N. DEAN, aged 62 years, who lived near Lobelia, Pocahontas County, died on Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks. He was well known over the county, having visited nearly every section as agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. Dean was a Christian Scientist or Faith Christ, or some fool thing or other, and when he become ill refused to send for a doctor, nor would he accept the services of a physician up to the time of his death, but clung to the idea that sickness and pain were nothing more than imaginary ailments. A Christian Science doctor was sent for. He lived in Moundsville, and before he arrived at the bedside of th sick man he was dead, but it cost the family of the deceased $60.00 just the same, so we are informed.

On the evening of Sunday, January 25, 1908, DEWEY, the 16-month old son of Mr. And Mrs. WM. TODD, of Loveridge, Pocahontas County Closed his eyes on earth to open them in heaven. For several months Dewey had been gradually fading away despite all care and attention. May God use this dispensation of his prominence to the good of the parents and sorrowing friends. M.

Mrs. W. H. OVERHOLT died at her home in Princeton, Mercer County, on Monday, August 15, 1910, of neuralgia of the heart, aged 70 years. She was a native of Pocahontas County, and a daughter of the late MOORE McNEIL. She is survived by a husband, two sons and three daughters.

GEORGE H. McLAUGHLIN, one of the older residence of Marlinton was found dead in bed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. O. SMITH, on Sunday Morning, October 2, 1910. He had not been feeling well for some months, but the night before his death he was in better spirits than usual, and spent the evening playing with his grandchildren. Some time after he had retired members of the household heard him up and about the room but paid no attention as it was not an unusual occurrence. Sunday morning one of his sons found him dead. There was no sign of a struggle, and his passing away must have been most peaceful. Mr. McLaughlin was one of our best known citizens and was familiarly known as "Grandpa". He was born and raised in Pocahontas County, and spent practically all his life here. He was a soldier in the Confederate Army in the war between the states, a member of the 14th and 19th Virginia Cavalry. He was twice married. His first wife was a Miss WILEY, of Highland County, Va. To them were born eight children-five sons and three daughters-all of whom service. His second marriage was with a lady in Greenbrier County, but she died in less than a year after their marriage. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and often expressed his willingness to go .- M

On Wednesday morning, October 12, 1910, at her home near Loveridge, Mrs. ETTA C McCOLLUM, wife of Lawrence McCollam, gave up life with all that pertains thereto and passed out into the great beyond. For several years she had been a sufferer of tuberculosis of the lungs and recently suffered an attack of measles and with the weakened condition of her body the dread disease soon gained the victory. She was in the 54th year of her age and was the mother of four sons Cecil, Bruce, Glenn and Pierre, who with their father remain to mourn her loss. In early life she professed faith in Christ and we trust that to those who love their Lord. Funeral services at residence and grave by Rev. Lawson Williams, of Falling Spring. She was buried in the forest's shade on their farm near the grave of her mother, who many years ago preceded her. May God comfort and provide for the needs of the sorrowing husband and sons.

The groom wore the conventional black. Quite a crowd of friends of the bride and groom were present and all, after the impressive ceremony, sat down to a wedding dinner bountiful and replete with ever sort of good thing eatable. The presents the bride received were numerous and some very handsome. Upon the day following the happy couple, accompanied by their Greenbrier friends that were present at the wedding, also two of the brides brothers, left for Mr. Hannah's home in Greenbrier. The parties present from a distance were Misses ADDIE WATTS-BUNGER, ALLIE McLAUGHLIN, DESSIE McCLUNG, KATE AYERS, Mr. SHERMAN HILL, LEM C. HANNAH, and EMORY McCLUNG. A photographer being present, a group of Mr. PETER HILLS family also a group of the party from Greenbrier was taken. The writer voices the sentiment of many who wish to Mr. Hannah and his charming wife, a long and harmonious married life.

Another link in the family chain of Mr. And Mrs. BEYER MORRISON, of Rock Camp Brance of Spring Creek, this county, has been broken by the death of their son, ERNEST, which occurred on Saturday morning, August 20th, 1904, after a two weeks' illness of bloody flux. The writer visited the boy the day before his death and was grieved to witness his restless sufferings without being able to relieve them. He was aged 13 years, 5 months and 8 days. His parents, brothers and sisters have many friends to sympathize with them in their grief.

Sorrow, deep sorrow, fell upon the relatives of the deceased and upon the whole city of Ronceverte, when on the morning of August 16th, (1911), the sad tidings spread through the community that EDWARD R. MATHESON had been quite suddenly called from this to a far happier life. EDWARD RAYMOND MATHESON was born in the city of Ronceverte on July 18th 1887. His early days were spent at school, where he assiduously applied himself to his studies. His conduct was always of the highest class, so that he was beloved by his schoolmates and by his teacher alike. After graduation with high honor at the high school of this city, he easily found employment here in the shops of the C & O Railway Co.. Here he labored with marked success for over eight years, when death cut short his useful career. The sorrow that filled the hearts of all his fellow workmen showed most conclusively how greatly he had endeared himself to all. Through his extreme faithfulness to duty, care and diligence he soon rose from machinist helper to machinist and pipe fitter. He had the full confidence of all his foremen, who looked upon him as one of the best employees of the shops. A very beautiful trait in the character of this young man was his tenderhearted charity. Many a poor workman, many a poor tramp, could tell us how the tenderhearted youth, who could not bear to see others suffer, would give them his own coat, yes, the very shoes from his feet, et all so quietly that none but his God, himself, the recipient and his mother ever knew aught about it. His love for home and his devotion to his mother were without bounds. To give her comfort; to be with her; to converse with her, preferably of God and his Holy faith; all this to speak candidly, was the greatest delight and joy of his heart. For her, he lived; for her he worked. He left her only to go to his work; he left his work his work to return to her. Is it any wonder that the heart of the mother should be overwhelmed with sorrow at the death of such a son? All this is beautiful, indeed, and well worthy of our imitation; but more beautiful yet was his tender love and devotion for his dear Lord in the Sacrament of his love. He would study from the first of the week to the end how he would arrange matters so as to be able to "lay off" on Sunday and attend to his religious exercises. He was always at Mass on Sunday's and very frequently he attended both Mass and Benediction in the evening. This was very extraordinary, since young men as a rule are not so demonstrative with their piety and devotion. But his heart seems not to have been given to the things of this earth. His conversation really was in heaven-of heavenly things. As often as he met the Rev. Pastor his questions were nearly always, "Father, when have you Benediction? Is there Mass next Sunday? I would not like to miss either." His love for his faith and his church was of the practical kind. He never failed in his dues, but would frequently pay in advance. In the extra-ordinary collection he never gave less than one dollar. He took the greatest interest in our church building funds and did all he could to aid it. He was a beautiful example to all young men in his practical love and devotion to his God, to his Holy Faith and to his Pastor. Such was the young man who was so suddenly called away from this land of exile, from the vale of tears. It was hard to lose him, but God's adorable well be done. We grieve, we sorrow at his loss, but not as those who have no hope. We hope to meet again! Meanwhile let us imitate his beautiful traits and let us be mindful of him in our prayers. May he rest in peace.

MILES BROWN, of Oscar, died at the home of J. R. PRICE Saturday morning and was buried at the Beulah graveyard Sunday evening.

Whenever was a community so overshadowed by the draperies of death as when it became down Thursday evening, October ?, 1915, that the death angel claimed for its victim the gentle spirit of our most beloved mother, sister, neighbor, and friend, Mrs. MIRIAM SUSAN SNEDEGAR, wife of Mr. ABRAHAM SNEDEGAR (deceased). She had been in feeble health for some time, although she was not considered dangerously ill until a few weeks before her death, when she was taken to the Elkins hospital, where doctors pronounced her case as hopeless; and returning to her home near Esty, Greenbrier County, she waited patiently until the summons came, and she gently fell asleep to awake in Jesus. She leaves to mourn her loss, one brother, and two sisters, namely: WALLACE NUNLEY, Mrs. EMMA WILLIAMS, and Mrs. CYNTHIA McMILLION, of near Williamsburg; and five children, three sons and two daughters; W. N., of Elkins, W. J. And K. W., of Falling Springs; Mrs. J. R. MCKEVIER of Esty, and Mrs. CLAUDE COOPER of Friar's Hill. She was in her 65th year, when quite young she gave her heart to God, and united with the Methodist Church, and always lived up to her professions. We feel that the church has lost an earnest, faithful and zealous worker, but where we bow to our Heavenly Father's will we thank the great Head of the Church for lending us this beautiful life, which He has now taken to himself; and for its sweet influences, and the worthy example she has placed before us as an earthly servant, a service not ended yet, for her works do follow her; and we pray God to grant, that these gracious grant, that these gracious influences may abide with us as sweet incense forever, enabling us to emulate her lovely traits of character. She was a devoted mother, a kind neighbor and a true friend, and was perfect in her lady-like hospitality; though quiet modest and unassuming, she found her way into the hearts of all with whom she came in contact-for all who knew her, loved her. We commend the bereaved ones to His sustaining love and care and earnestly pray God to sanctify this application to the ennobling and strengthening.

Graduating from the Medical College of Virginia in 1903, he joined the staff of the Hinton hospital, giving himself to special work in the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis; and it is one of the ironies of fate that he himself should have become a victim of the evil disease. Dr.

Since his graduation in medicine twelve years ago he has been ceaselessly engaged in the active practice of that profession. Amid all his busy activities this many-sided man found time to enter the field of literature and there win new laurels. His "Marmaduke of Tennessee," published last year, has taken high rank among the historical novels of America, andhis shorter stories in the magazines have served further to disclose his remarkable intellectual gifts and graces. A search was immediately made and the body was found very much mangled. He was brought to his home near Warwick and was buried Sunday. Of late years he had grown very deaf and this may have contributed to his death. He had reached a ripe old age. For many years he has been a well known character throughout the county. Many years ago he invented a remedy which he extracted from the wood and which he called "Cedar Oil" which he sold extensively. He practiced tooth-pulling and had a very considerable knowledge of medicine and was generally known as "Doctor Irvine." He leaves a large family and his descendants are numerous. Mrs. BLANCH MARTIN, wife of DOVER MARTIN, of Clarksburg, died at her home in that city after a week's illiness, on the morning of Friday, August 25, 1916, aged nearly 24 years. Her body, accompanied by her sorrowing husband, her father, a sister, a sister-in-law and her brother-in-law, arrived at the home of her father, R. R.

SNEDEGAR, at Jacox, late Saturday evening. After funeral services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. E. Barnes, her remains were laid to rest. On the lovely Sabbath afternoon of October 3, 1915, a large crowd of relatives and friends of CECIL McCOLLAM, of Loveridge, this county, followed his mortal remains to a quiet secluded spot in the woods at the top of a hill, and there laid him to rest by the side of his mother. For years Cecil had been a sufferer from lung trouble and spent more than a year at the state sanitarium of Terra Alta, where he did his best with the skilled force of that institution to stay the ravages of the disease, but all to no avail, and he came home in July to await his summons to depart. The summons came just before the dawn of day on Saturday, October 2, 1915. He was in his 29th year. He had followed the profession of school teaching for some years until that dread disease laid its hand on him and failed to release its grip, but "God knows best" and all we can do is to submit to his will and await the time when we can understand why all these things are for the best. Cecil knew that the time of departure was near at hand and testified to his readiness and of a desire to spend eternity in a better world than this. He leaves a father, W. L. McCOLAM, and three brothers, Bruce, Glenn and Pierce. His mother preceded him to the grave four years ago.

Mrs. SUSAN SNEDEGAR departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. McKEEVER, near Friar's Hill, this county, on Friday morning, October 15, 1915, of a complication of diseases. She had been a sufferer for some time and all that kind hands and loving hears could do was done, as she was taken by her children to the hospital at Elkins, but God knew best and called her to a better world than this. Mrs. Snedegar was a Miss NUNLEY before her marriage, and was born near Williamsburg, this county, in the year 1850, therefore was 65 years old. She married Abraham Snedegar, who died several years ago. She united with the M. E. Church when only 15 years old and was a hard worker in that church for 50 years of her life. She was kind to all she met and was especially interested in the welfare of her children. She leaves to mourn her loss besides a host of friends and relatives, three sons and two daughters: W. N. Snedegar, of Elkins, W. J. Snedegar, both of Renick; Mrs. E. C. COOPER and Mrs. J. R. McKeever, both of Friar's Hill. She also leaves one brother and two sisters, all of Williamsburg; Wallace Nunley, Mrs. Ed. McMillion and Mrs. Dave McMillion.

The people of Renick and surrounding county have recently been sadened by the death of one of their most loved and honored residents, Mrs. Elizabeth A. HANNA, who passed away at her home on Spring Creek road, Wednesday, March 25, 1916, at 5 o'clock p.m. Mrs. Hannah was in her 70th year. For several months her health has been failing, and despite the best medical skill that could be brought to her relief, she grew gradually worse, and for the past few weeks had seemed to be lingering just the point of death. The funeral service was conducted on Friday, March 17th, and was attended by oe of the largest crowds ever assembled in Spring Creek Presbyterian Church, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by our people. Mrs. Hanna made a profession of faith early in life and united with the Presbyterian Chrch at this place where she remained a faithful and consistent member until her death. In the home, in the church, and in the community her life was a reflection of that Greater Light whose mission it is to dispel darkness and to bring comfort and cheer into the world. In her death the church and the community have sustained a loss that is keenly felt, but the memory of a life thus yielded to the Master and spent in His service will live on for many a day and be an influence for good in our midst. Mrs. Hanna is survived by her husband, J. HARVEY HANNA, and four children; viz: Mrs. PHAR KINSLEY, Mrs. HOWARD McCOY, Mrs. W. F. KNIGHT, and Mr. MAYNARD HANNA, all of Renick. She leaves four sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss, viz: Mrs. LUCY MYLES, and Mrs. IDA BYRD, both of this county, Mrs. MAGGIE HUFF, of Sugar Grove, Va., Ms. ANDREW HULL, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. JAS. WALKUP, resident of Greenbrier County.

Mr. L. C. McMILLION died at his home near Lobelia, on Tuesday, May 14th, 1918, aged about 68 years, after a few days illness. His body was laid to rest in the Hill cemetery, near Lobelia, on Thursday with appropriate services by his pastor. No funeral being preached on account of the serious illness of his wife. His wife took sick a few days after he died and in five days after his death her spirit took its flight to lin that of her husband in the "mansions beyond the skies." She was about 64 years old. Mr. McMILLION was born in Greenbrier County, came to Pocahontas County when a young man and married Miss CAROLINE HILL, daughter of the late RICHARD HILL of Hill Creek, about the year 1875. They had lived ever since their marriage near her old home place. They both united themselves to the M. E. Church, when quite young and lived loyal and consistent Christian lives ever since, filling very important positions in the church and Sunday school. At the time of his death, Mr. McMILLION was class leader and steward. Mrs. McMILLION was and had been for a number of years, teacher of the primary class. The little class will greatly miss her. They both will be greatly missed in the church and community. They were regular in their church attendance, always at the post of duty till the last.

Theirs was a kind and hospitable home; visitors were always welcome. But we are thankful for the example they left us and we know where to find them. They were always able to give abundant testimony to the saving grace of our Lord Jesus. They are survived by two sons, Messers. J. E. McMILLION, of Renick, and D. F. McMILION of Ward, and two daughters, Miss Maudie of HANSFORD, and Mrs. EVA SPINKS who lives at the home place. Our sympathy goes forth to the bereaved family and relatives. May the dear Lord console them in their great sorrow and fill their hears with the certain hope of a blessed reunion hereafter in the beautiful home above. The children wish to express their most sincere thanks to the many kind friends who helped to wait on their parents.

BEARD who died in April, 1918. She had been a sufferer for a long time and about a month ago went to a sanitarium in what proved to be a vain hope of obtaining relief. Miss Brown lacked only a few days of having completed her course as a nurse in St. John's hospital of Cleveland, and had enlisted for overseas service. ABRAM ERASTUS CUTLIP, the subject of this sketch, was born October 20, 1838, and passed away from this earthly life into the great eternity at his home near Renick eternity at his home near Renick Valley, this county, on the afternoon of February 6, 1918, from the infirmities of age. If he had lived until next October, he would have completed his 80th year and no doubt he had proven the truth of the Psalmist's declaration: "and if by reason of strength they be foourscore years yet Is their strength labor and sorrow." His aged wife, who was the Miss LYNDIA HANNA previous to her marriage to her marriage to him, with ten living children are left, with many friends, to mourn his loss. Three children preceded him to the grave, and the following are those that survive: Mrs. SUSANNA SIMMONS and Mrs. WILLIE HINKLE, of Renick Valley: Mrs. ELLA BOGGS, of Jacox; Misses Edith and Bertha, all home, and Messrs. Michael, Dock, , Joseph, Preston, and Roma. Mr. Cutlip enlisted for service in the Union army during the year 1863 and remained in service until the close of the civil war in 1865. As to religious faith, Mr. Cutlip was an adherent of the Baptist Church, and we trust that his may be the reward of the righteous. On February 8th, his body was laid to rest in the Harlow graveyard, near Brownstown. May all the bereaved friends find solace in Him who doeth all things well.

In the early morning hours of Sunday, February 23, 1918, an unbidden guest entered the home of Mr. And Mrs. WALTER WORKMAN, of Jacox, Pocahontas County, and departed taking the precious life of their little daughter, Flossie, aged nearly three years, and leaving behind a grief stricken home. But what a precious thought comes to us in this hour of sad bereavement: "Jesus said suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." And what a comfort to know that it is "well with thee hild." Flossie was sick but a short time and nothing serious thought until a few hours before her death, when she became alarmingly ill and soon passed away. After a short prayer service at Beulah Church on Sunday Afternoon, her body was laid away in the graveyard nearby. The family have the sympathy of many firends in this sad bereavement, and God is able to comfort all such grief-stricken ones.

E. F. CALLISON, Sr., Esq., died on Monday, April 22, 1918, at the residence of his cousin, Henry GILMER, in Lewisburg, aged about 76 years. He was with the first Confederate Company that left Greenbrier in 1861, was in both battles of BullRun, in the seven days fight, at Malvern Hill, and many smaller battles. He married Lizzie M. CALLISON, who survives him. He is also survived by four sons—Samuel, W. H., Charles, and DeWitt—and three daughters, Rose RHEMS, Maggie JACOBS, and Ella, Four sisters also survived him. For many years Mr. Callison lived on Greenbrier river opposite the mouth of Locust Creek, in the southern part of Pocahontas County. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at the Old Droop Mountain Church near his home on the Greenbrier, Wednesday, the 24th, where the

Mrs. Elizabeth (Morrison) McMILLION, wife of Mr. A. P. McMILLION, departed this life at her home at Friars Hill, Greenbrier County on Monday, April 8, 1918, aged 51 years, two months and seven days having been born on January 31, 1867. She was married to A. P. McMILLION on April 14, 1886, and to this union were born two children, Clarence preceded her to the grave February 3, 1907. Roy was called into service for our country one week before his mother died and is now at Camp Lee, Va. Of her immediate family, she leaves a husband, one son, and a brother, Moffett Morrison, of Beckley, Raleigh County. She also leaves a host of relatives and friends, but their loss is her eternal gain. She had been a sufferer from rheumatism for about eight years, but bore her afflictions patiently to the end, as only those who walk with God can do. At an early age she professed religion and continued a faithful Christian until her death, always demonstrating in her life, character and social relations that refined, elevated, uplifting and pure Christian character which is so commendable and praiseworthy in life's struggle for victory. She was strongly attached to the people living in the vicinity of Friars Hill. Dying as she did with one of life's slow destroyers, she always had a smile to greet us. With a sweet assurance she passed away without much struggle. How feeble are words to carry consolation to hearts bereaved of a loving wife and mother. A tender clinging vine interwoven in sweet memories; a gentle spirit of light that flitted in and out like a gleam of shunshine. No one can fill her place in the vacant chair; no one will take her placee in the husband's and son's hearts. And you would not have the void filled even if you could. It will be a sacred thought in years to come to husband, son and friends that she shed radiance in the home as long as she did. She was laid to rest on April 9th in the McMillion cemetery by the side of Clarence to await the judgement when all shall be known as we are known. -Esta Hme Shafer.

On November 13, 1917, this community was made sad when the news was flashed over the wires from Baltimore of the death of Edward Hume, who had been in John Hopkins hospital for five weeks. His death was caused by a diseased limb. He was operated on four times, passing away under the last operation. His limb was amputated in the second operation, but finding no relief two other incisions were made. His wife was with him until the end which came on the 13th inst., at about five o'clock, a.m. The remains war brot to Richwood and convey over the mountains to the old home cemetery for interment. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Hill, and five children, three sons and two daughters, an aged father and mother, two brothers and four sisters, besides a large number of grief stricken relatives and friends. Deceased was born in 1872 and was therefore in this 45th year. He professed religion some years ago, and was a kind and loving father, a dear brother and son. At the time of his death he was employed as freight agent at Richwood and during his service there had gained a reputation above reproach. To know Ed was to love him; he had friends but no enemies. While hearts are made sad and lonely by his absence from earth, there is only a little while of waiting to be reunited by the throne of God. The remains were laid to rest on Friday in McMillion Cemetery, near Friars Hill, this county, his native home, to await the resurrection morn.

Mrs. SARAH J. HAMONS died at her home near Loveridge, this county, on December 9, 1918, at ten o'clock in the morning. She was married to Mr. James HAMONS, September 27, 1918. At her home in the Renick Valley section of Greenbrier County, on the morning of March 5, 1918, Mrs. Lizzie Cutlip, after a journey of more than 80 years (having completed her 80th year on December 25, 1917), came to those bounds which God has placed for all mankind, and passed out into the great beyond, She leaves two sons, Wallace and Henry, and two daughters, Mrs. Georgia HOLLANDSWORTH and Mrs. Saml. HILL, with several grandchildren and a wide circle of friends to feel that they have lost an earthly friend. Her husband, William CUTLIP, preceded her to the grave several years ago. Aunt NANCY KELLISON, an aged and lifelong resident of the vicinity of Jacox, Pocahontas County, died at an early hour on Christmas day, Thursday, December 25, 1919, from the infirmities of old age, having nearly completed her 88th year, being born in February 1832. pastor, Rev. W. H. HENDERSON at Hill's chapel on December 26th. A large crowd was present at the funeral services and the pastor gave a comforting talk from Rev. 14 Chap. 13 verse, after which her remains were taken to the Kellison graveyard and laid to rest. What must a home going to heaven on Christmas means when our earthly reunions mean so much and bring such peace and joy.

LESSIE CATHERINE, youngest child of Mr. And Mrs. HARRY KELLISON, of Jacox, Pocahontas County, died on November 2, 1919, after a few days' illness of bronchial pneumonia, leaving her parents, one sister and three brothers to miss her in the home. She was 11 months and 3 days old. Another precious pearl has been taken from earth to heaven and we should say with that "great woman" of the prophet Elijah's time, "It is well with the child", though our hearts are saddened we can look forward to a home for our loved ones with Christ, where no sorrow ever comes. Funeral services for the child were conducted by Rev. Henderson, pastor of Beulah Church, the day following its death, and the earthly form was laid to rest in the graveyard nearby.

Mrs. SYNTHIA ISABEL McMILLION, wife of Edward McMILLION, DIED February 22, 1917. She was born July 1, 1858, and therefore was 57 yers, 5 months, and 21 days old. She had beenin poor health for some time but not considered dangerous, until a few hours before the death angel came and called for her. Mrs. McMillion was the daughter of GARLAND NUNLEY. She leaves one brother and one sister—J. W. NUNLEY and Mrs. Dave Williams. She also is survived by four children; three sons and one daughter. She professed religion at Old Salem Church in her childhood days and lived a consistent Christian up until her death. After funeral services conducted by Rev. G. R. REED. The body was laid to rest in the New Salem Cemetery. He will come perhaps at morning, When to simply live is sweet;

When the arm is strong—unwearied
By the noonday toil and heat;
When the undimmed eye looks fearless
Up the shining heights of life,
And the eager soul is panting,
Yearning for some noble strife;
If he only finds us ready
In the morning's happy light.

In the strong and fiery noontide,
Or the coming of the night;
If he only finds us waiting,
List'ning to His sudden Call,
Then His coming when we think not,
Is the sweetest hope of all.

Marlinton and community was never more deeply moved than by the death of GEORGE W. DUNCAN, on Tuesday, November 11, 1919. As man and boy he had live grown up among us, and numbered his friends by his acquaintances. Just at the present time few men appeared to be more needed by the county. Through years of hard work and by his own efforts he had built up a contracting business to a point where he could handle large affairs. The company of which he was the head and moving spirit had recently been awarded the largest road contract ever undertaken in Pocahontas County. The day of his death he was preparing to make a start on the work, the building of the turnpike from Campbellstown toward Huntersville. This was but the stepping stone to much greater things in the years which seemed to be assured him. When he was just entering manhood, the Greenbrier Division of the C. & O. Was being built. He became a member of an engineering fore as a laborer, and by his energy and close application became a proficient civil engineer. For many years he followed the profession of surveyor.. He sought office once and was elected county surveyor of Pocahontas at an early age. Later he served as County Road Engineer at the time the county first began to consider the permanent improvement of its highways, A few years ago Mr. Duncan turned his attention to the contracting business, and has been very successful, building many large concrete bridges in this and other counties of West Virginia. By his work as a contractor he was the means of saving his home county many thousand of dollars on bridges in the past four years. The deceased was a large employer of labor, and the esteem in which he was held by the men who worked for and with him and their loyal devotion to him is monument that any man might envy. He was fair and just and generous, and never asked a man to do anything he himself was not willing to do. The burial service was from the Presbyterian Church on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Revs. J. M. WALKER, Geo. P. MOORE and W. D. KEENE. Interment at Mt. View cemetery with Masonic rites. The immense congregation wiich filled and overflowed the church gave testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by a multitude of friends and relatives. Thirteen years ago Mr. Duncan married ANNA MARIE MAYS, daughter of Mr. And Mrs, Richard MAYS, deceased. She and three children survive, William aged ten, Jack, eight, and Harper Lee, three years. His father, William A. DUNCAN, and his sister, Mrs. Enoch McNEILL preceded him to the grave. His mother, Mrs. Clarissa DUNCAN, his sister, Mrs. Harper ADKISON, his brothers, Colberet, Elmer and Austin, and his aged grandmother, survive him. Thus we note the untimely death of GEORGE WASHINGTON DUNCAN, aged 37 years, ten months and 24 days. An honest man.

MET DEATH ON A CURVE.

(No date, but Sarah wrote, Jan. 8th, 1919).

A dreadful accident occurred on the Greenbrier division of the Cheaspeake and Ohio railway on last Tuesday afternoon shortly after three o'clock a few hundred yards north of Anthony station. The accident resulted in the instant death of section foreman C. W. BRYANT and James KNIGHT, an employee of the section force, both of whom were riding a light motor car from Anthony to Woodman, which ran into the down Woodman, which ran into the down local freight on the peak of the sharp curve north of Anthony. Mr. BRYANT was thrown from the motor car headfirst into a pile of rocks, while Mr. Knight was thrown against the engine of the freight train. Death resulted to both instantly. The section foreman, desiring to go to Woodman, inquired of the agent at Anthony the times the local left Renick, and is believed to have understood it to have been twenty minutes before. Thinking this would give him ample time to reach Woodman, they proceeded on the motor at a rapid speed and met the local freight head-on at the curve. There was no time for either the engineer of the freight or the men on the motor to stop or even slacken speed. The engineer of the freight train was Mr. Ira F. BOWLING, of this city, and he was making not to exceed twelve miles an hour at the time, as it is impossible to make this curve at greater speed with great risk of going into the river. The motor car was making a much greater speed than the train, and for this reason the occupants were unable to jump from it. Mr. BOWLING, after reaching this city on the completion of his run, was very much unnerved by the horrible accident in which he was an unavoidable participant.

JOSEPH ROSS PERKINS, died at his home near Falling Spring, on Thursday, November 13, 1919, Mr. Perkins was born July 13, 1843. He was a soldier during the war between the States on the Confederate side. On October 14, 1869 he was married to Miss Martha J. WALKUP, who survives him. A few years ago Mr. Perkins sold his property at the mouth of Spice Run to the Spice Run Lumber Co., and came to Greenbrier County, where he lived until his death, Mr. Perkins was the father of ten children, five of whom survive.

MRS. LYDIA ANN EDGAR.

One of the saddest experiences of a pastorate which extends over a number of years is connected with the visits which the death angel makes to the homes of the church. The pastor begins with those whom he considers his main supporters in the work-who are regularly found at the sessions of the Sunday School and in their pews during the preaching services. The pastor feels that, like Saul, he has a band with him whose hearts God has touched. But the pastorate has not lasted many years before the angel of death begins to make his visits having vacant chairs beside once united firesides and vacant pews at church and empty places in the Sunday School. He feels that the foundations are going from under the spiritual structure that welcomed and encouraged him at the beginning of his labors. He wonders who will take the places of those who have fallen. This feeling has been borne upon the mind with insistent force in the taking of this mother, the last of a large family that was for many years loyal and steadfast supporters of Presbyterianism in the community. It seesm that a link that bound us to a glorious and fruitful past has been broken. Mrs. Lydia Ann EDGAR was a daughter of Col. Paul and Rachewl SEE McNEEL, and was born at Glade Hill, near Dunmore, W.Va., January 17, 1849. In 1852 her father bought the home near Hillsboro that became the ancestral home of the family there, with the exeption of the Civil War period, Mrs, EDGAR abode until Christ received her into "the house of many mansions," January 22, 1919. Rev. Daniel A PENICK who had been for a time a teacher in the old Hillsboro Academy, having married the the eldest daughter of Col. McNEEL, was at the outbreak of the Civil War pastor of the Poplar Tent Church, N. C., and on account of the unsettled condition of the country about Hillsboro, Col. McNEEL placed his daughter under the care of his sister, Mrs. PENICK. There she spent several years in the formation period of ????????.(Some missing). She never thought of herself but always of them and their need; she never spared herself if they seemed to have a want which she could supply. For many years her health had been precarious and in the autumn having passed through an attack of influenza, her strength began rapidly to wane. Her heart always, perhaps, rather weak, became so greatly involved that all hope of her recover passed. She suffered far more than any one knew except those constantly at her bedside. She bore it all in the sweetest submission to God's will, remarking to a member of the family not many hours before the end, for which she yearningly waited, "God is so merciful to me." Undergoing such suffering it is no wonder that she longed to depart and be with Christ. On her 70th birthday she remarked that God didn't see fit to grant her the blessing of spending it in his presence but in his own good time he took his handmaiden out of her suffering. The blessings of her life will linger in many ways.

Rev. Adam Poe BOUDE, a retired minister of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Es\piscopal Church, South, died Sunday afternoon, November 30, 1919, at his home at Stanley, Page County, Va. Since retiring from the ministry, he had been conducting a store at that place and though he was 85 years old, he carried on the business himself until two weeks, before his death. He was a native of Shenandoah County. Rev. BOUDE was widely known in the Greenbrier Valley 45 years ago, and is still remembered by many of the old people of this section. He had a fine tenor voice and a thorough knowledge of music, which was of vast use to him, as it enabled him to attract large audiences wherever he went. He was especially popular at camp meetings and revivals, where he literally sang himself into the hearts of the people. It is said that a vocal quartet composed of Rev. BOUDE, Rev. L. BUTTS, Jehu HANK, and Col. J. H. CROZIER, of this city produced music which for beauty, strength and rhythm, has never been duplicated since.

Dr. Dan McKEE died at the home of his son, Dr. M. N. McKEE on Saturday, November 22, 1919, in his 81st year of infirmities of age. Until a few months ago, he was active in the practice of his profession as a dentist, but when the break came he failed rapidly. Services were conducted at the home on Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. D. KEENE. Burial at Parkersburg on Wednesday. He is survived by his aged wife and their two children, Dr. M. N. McKee, of Marlinton, and Mrs. Jonas HAWK of Parkersburg.Mr. Dan McKEE was born in Pittsburgh in 1839. He was the younges of eight children, and his father died when his younges son was a small child. He studied for a dentist and practiced his profession for many years at Ravenswood. Shortly after the railroad was built in the Greenbrier Valley, he came here, practicing at Renick, Marlinton and Beverly. He was a good man, liked and respected by all who knew him. For a life time he had been a professing Christian, and a member of the Presbyterian Church.

These lines are written in loving respect to the memory of Mrs. Mary Serene LOVERIDGE CLARK, of Loveridge, W.Va. Who on October 20, 1920, at Kellam Hospital, Richmond, Va., arrived at the terminus of a long earthly life of 84 years nearly completed and entered into life eternal. The bliss of which we are ignorant she testified during her illness of it being well with her soul. She had been a member of the Presbyterian church for many years. The writer isn't well enough informed of her life to give the details in full but knows of her early home being in the state of Connecticut and her education was received in some of her home institutions of learning, and she bore all through her life the impress of refinement and culture and when we looked on her quiet fact in her casket we observed that impress was yet there. She was the widow of Henry S. CLARK, who died in 1902, and was the mother of nine children, of which only four survive her: Rev. R. H. Clark of Kincaid, W.Va. R. C. And Peter of Loveridge and Ryce of New Haven, Conn. One son, Sheldon, died in early manhood and one son and her three daughters died in infancy and early childhood. We were comforted by the knowledge that although Mrs. Clark had no daughter of her own to care for her during her illness, that some other mothers girls gave to her affectionate care. Her body was brought from Richmond, Va. And on Friday a number of relatives and friends gathered at the Presbyterian church at Hillsboro where her funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. C. JOHNSON, and her earthly remains were taken from thence to the family graveyard on the old Clark estate and there laid to rest by the side of her husband and other loved ones. The writer feels in the departure of this lady that her earthly friends number one less but is comforted by knowing that there is one more tie on the "other side" and one more that is safely housed from the storms and turmoils of this earthly life. There are many others than her own family and relatives that are touched and bereaved by her going home but we should be consoled by believing that it is well with her. May God's comforting grace abound a=to all the bereaved ones. S. V. M.

She was a true gentlewoman, leaving the impress of her gentle, cultured and self-sacrificing womanhood in the minds of all who knew her. Hers was a life devoted without reserve to the service of others, and in her late illness of some months this trait of character shone even more brightly as she bore her intense sufferings unmurmuringly and was thoughtful always of the welfare and comfort of her attendants and her loved ones. LIEUTENANT ANDREW BERT HOKE. By JOHN KNOX.

On February 10, 1920 in the City of Washington, (DC) there departed this life the spirit of Lieutenant Andrew Bert was the son of Mr. And Mrs. John W HOKE of Monroe County. For several months Lieutenant Hoke had been at Walter Reed Hospital, suffering the effects of gas received in action in France during the 1918 fighting. And there his spirit left as for a better world. Andrew Bert HOKE was born on March 19, 1892. He received his education at Marshall College and at Valparaiso University. For nine years he was a teacher in the schools of our state. He was at East Bank, W.Va. Teaching when he accepted a position in the War Department. On November 11, 1917, he enlisted in the army as a private and was sent to Camp Devens, Ayer, Massachusetts. He was promoted to the rank of sergeant twenty-one days after enlistment, and soon afterward to that of Second Lieutenant. A few months later Lieutenant HOKE left New York for France and arrived at Brest, France, on February 2, 1918. He was stationed at Le Havre, France, serving with the 419th Depot Detachment Engineers, Base Section No. 1. Although he was stationed at the port section, Lieutenant HOKE went frequently to the front, and it was during one of the many air raids that he was gassed. He was one of the last of Monroe County's boys to return from France, landing on July 29, 1919. Since his arrival, although confined to the hospital, Lieutenant Hoke made three fifteen- day visits to his home on Second Creek. The deceased is survived by his father and mother; five sisters-Misses Ola, Clarice, Nelle, Myrtle, and Georgia-and three brothers,-Thurman, Ott, and Clifford .Lieutenant Hoke belonged to one of the best families of all Monroe County,-a family not only unusual in culture, but one in which God has first place, Bert was the pride of the home. Blessed with fine physique, a university training, and a noble Christian spirit he had before him the brightest prospects and for him the highest hopes. In his community no one was more beloved. His cheerful disposition, his magnanimous soul, his unselfish, affectionate spirit could not but make him the friend of all who loved true friendship. In Church, too, Bert was a leader. He was a member of the Methodist Church at Highland Park, and on one was more faithful. Bert was truly, pre-eminently religious Christ was first in his life. To do God's will was his highest joy. His example has been of the greatest help to all who knew him. Indeed, rely, do we see one life which combines so many Christian virtues; rarely ever, do we find a type of young manhood so nearly ideal. Not only was Bert the soul of gentleness; he was the spirit of valor. When our country was in peril he was one who was ready to offer himself to its service. More than that, he gave his life to the cause of right; he sacrificed himself on the altar of truth. He was true to the last, to principle and duty. Lieutenant Hoke's body lies buried at Highland Park cemetery, wrapped in the flag to whose honor he gave his life to defend; his spirit is at rest in the bosom of the Father, in whose service he was ever faithful.

"A sacrifice like Christ. Who, crucified, Endured the agony For us, and died."

The community of Esty was never so shocked or saddened as when it became known that Mrs. Alice J. EGGLESTON had died very suddenly of heart failure while visiting in Renick, She ws the guest of her niece, Mrs. Mintle KNIGHT, on the night of Wednesday, December 8, 1920 and seemed in usual health only for a severe pain in her shoulder and arm. Her condition was not alarming and the family retired for the night, to find in the morning that her spirit had passed into eternity. Alice J. (SAMMONS) EGGLESTON was born in 1862 near Sunlight, this county. She was united in marriage in 1887 to John J. EGGLESTON. She professed religion in her teens and lived a consecrated Christian-a good woman, a devoted mother, and a kind neighbor. Her husband had preceded her to the grave about five years ago, and three years ago her home was totally destroyed by fire, she having had a narrow escape from being consumed with the flames. About three months ago a son, Herbert was suddenly called into eternity. But in all the sorrows and trouble, she bore up under the great burdens, believing God's assistance lightened her load. She daily walked and talked with her Master, and while our hearts are sad and we miss her in the home, church, and neighborhood, we know that she has only passed near the Eternal Light and has crossed the lowland to dwell on the mountain top. Of her immediate family she leaves three daughters, namely: Miss Lena W., and Mrs. E. C. GORDON, at home, Mrs. Otey McMILLION, of Winchester, Ind., and two sons, Samuel E., of Chicago, Ill., and Earl at home: also, two sisters, Mrs. TAYLOR of Renick, and Mrs. G. A. GARNER of Esty. Though hearts bleed in sorrow and anguish, why be cast down in this hour of gloom? It is only a lovely life gone from a mortal tenement of clay, which shone so beautifully for a season by reason of the wondrous spirit within snatched from earth to shine more radiantly in the heavenly kingdom. Funeral services were conducted in the home, after which her mortal remains were borne to the McMillion Cemetery and laid to rest to await the resurrection morning.

Dr. James Bedford LOCKRIDGE died in the Greenbrier hotel at Ronceverte on Wednesday morning, December 8, 1920, of heart disease. He was returning from Fishersville, Va., where he had been called by the illness of a little grandchild, and was taken sick in his room. A physician was called and arrived just before his death. For some time, Dr. Lockridge, had been suffering with heart trouble but he had been attending to his large practice as usual. His age was 58 years. He was the youngest child of the late Colonel James T. LOCKRIDGE and Mrs. Lillie MOSER LOCKRIDGE. His aged mother and a sister, Mrs. J. W. MILLIGAN and a brother, H. M. LOCKRIDGE, are left.. Thirty four years ago Dr. LOCKDRIDGE and Miss Margaret E. WARWICK, daughter of the late Squire John WARWICK, were united in marriage. His wife and their two daughters and five sons survive him, Mrs. Boy CAMPBELL, of Fishersville, Va., Miss Georgia LOCKRIDGE, Dr. Raymond LOCKRIDGE, of Tennnesee: Newton, Julian, Hal and Horace LOCKRIDGE. The funeral services will be conducted from the LOCKRIDGE home at Minnehaha Springs at 12:30 o'clock on Friday, the burial to be in the family graveyard a mile distant, Rev. Fred GRAY of Cass will conduct the service. Few men have lived more useful lives or will be more sadly missed by more people than will Dr. LOCKRIDGE. Like the average faithful country doctor, he literally wore himself out in answering the calls of suffering humanity. In religion, Dr. Lockridge was a life long member of the Episcopal Church. He was a faithful and consistent follower of Jesus Churist, for of him it can be truly said, as it was of this Master, he went about doing good.

Of her fathers family, but two remain, Mrs. Anne POTTS of Elkins, and John WAUGH, of Marlinton. Mrs. JOHNSON was thrice married. Her first husband, Washington McNEIL, died durning the Civil War leaveing a number of small and helpless children to be cared for by the mother. The children who survive their mother are Mrs. Clarissa DUNCAN of Buckeye, Mrs. Thomas HOUCHIN of Hosterman, and Mrs. Salie ODEN, of Hamilton, Ohio; J. B. McNEIL, near Marlinton. Another son, Rev. J. W. McNEIL preceded his mother to the grave about a month ago. Her grandchildren and great grand children are numbered by the score. Her second husband was the late John MOORE, of Marlinton, and her third marriage was to the late Ewing JOHNSON, who died about a year ago. Mrs. Johnson was buried at Mt. View Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted from her home. For many years Mrs. Johnson had been a professing Christian, a consistent member of the Methodist Church, She lived a useful, helpful life, and was every ready and willing to help in times of trouble and distress. Before laid aside by the infirmities of age, she was a regular and welcome visitor at the homes of her many friends.

Zachariah TAYLOR, of Renick, died at the University hospital, Charlottesville, Va., on Saturday, November 20, 1920. The immediate cause of his death was an operation for tumor of the bowels. Mr. Taylor was a consistent Christian, having made a profession of religion in early life. He possessed a fertile intellect, a most remarkable memory and was the best posted man on local history of anyone in his section. He was an excellent entertainer and was always a welcomed guest everywhere. He will be greatly missed in his community and the homes of his ones. There will be a vacancy that can not be filled.

Mr. Aaron Bollar BURR died at his home in the Richlands, this county on Thursday, January 12, 1922, aged 85 years, 10 months. He was a large and successful farmer and one of Greenbrier's most respected citizens. He was a Confederate veteran, of the 14th Virginia Cavalry, and a faithful Methodist.

Many friends of Miss Alice CLARK, even in her own community, were shocked to hear that on August 4, 1921, that she had been called from her earthy home at Hillsboro, W.Va. To the reward which God had reserved to bestow upon her handmaiden. So insidious had been the disease which took her away, and so bravely and unmurmuringly had she struggled against it that very few realized that she was so near death's door, and when the end came it had upon the whole community the startling effect of accident. Miss Alice was one of nine children born to Samuel T. And Annie LEWIS CLARK. Her father was for many years a deacon in Oak Grove Presbyterian Church and her mother died in the faith, and when she made a profession of her in Christ she united with the church of her parents October 25, 1896. Almost all her ife she belonged to that most useful band of self-sacrifing servitors of the public, the teaching fraternity. She literally wore her life out in this calling, teaching when her strength was insufficient, and yet never abating one whit of the energy tat characterized her years of sound health. She had already perfected plans to take charge of a school the coming winter when death ended all her earthly purposes. Miss Alice was very quiet and retiring in her tastes and habits but yet the fact that she had taught so much gave her a scope of influence that will be felt for many years on the great number whom she had trained in the school room and who have been taught to value the ideals of life which she inculcated. Out of the school room she loved her home and the domestic duties it involved and the opportunity which it gave her for reading, of which she was very fond. Her most intimate friends and relations alone, perhaps, were able to look beneath the exterior of reserve and modesty and appraise at their true value the qualities of mind and heart that were hers. To them the tenderness and devoted affection which she bestowed upon a mother who was a semi-invalid for many years before her death will always shine out conspicuously in their memory of her. Thus, to them she seemed to fit into the home that they occupied together and become a very part of it. They will miss her from these earthly walks, but the Bible which she had so well worn has pointed her to the heavenly places in Christ and that is far better. "Behold, I come quickly and my reward is with me."

Rev. Wm. T. PRICE, D.D., one of the most beloved and widely known divines of the Greenbrier Valley, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. F. R. HUNTER, in Marlinton, last Sunday, January 23, 1921, of the infirmities of old age, in his 91st year. Dr. PRICE was the son of the late James A. And Margaret D. PRICE and of a family of fourteen brothers and sisters only one survives—a sister, Mrs. Mary H. McLAUGHLIN, of Maxwelton, this county. He was a graduate of Hillsboro Academy and Washington College, now Washington and Lee University. At Lexington, Va., during his school years he became intimate with Stonewall JACKSON, who was then instructor at Virginia Military Institute. From College, Dr. PRICE completed his education at Union Theological Seminary and in 1857 was licensed as a minister of the Presbyterian Church. He was an ordained minister of the gospel for sixty-three years. Dr. PRICE served with the Confederate Army as Chaplain, going with the first Company of soldiers leaving Highland County on the historic expedition to Grafton, the earliest campaign in the civil war. He was later

The community of Esty, this county, was greatly shocked by the death of Mr. William Preston McKEEVER, which occurred at his home on September 4, 1 923, after only a few hours suffering of acute indigestion, bringing on heart failure. Mr. McKEEVER was born November 25, 1861, and was therefore in his 62nd year. He is survived by his wife and two children, Clay, at home, and Mrs. Kenna LEWIS, of the same community, also by his aged mother, two brothers, G. S. McKEEVER, of Beard, J. R., of Esty, and three sisters, Mrs. Alice HANNA of Wellsville, Pa., Mrs. Minnie RAPP of Renick, and Miss Rebecca, at home. By his death the community loses one of its most valued citizens. He had been justice of the peace for Falling Spring District for a number of years, and had always served the public in such a way as to gain the friendship of all who knew him. After funeral services at the home, conducted by Rev. V. C. MILLER, of Alderson, the body was laid to rest in the McMillion Cemetery to await the resurrection.

Mr. Washington Allen BROWN, one of the leading citizens of Falling Spring District, Greenbrier County, died at his home at Renick, on March 27, 1923. Mr. BROWN was one of the landmarks of that section, being near the age of 89 years. He was a Christian gentleman, a peaceful citizen, and a great lover of his home an family, and will be greatly missed in the community and in the home and church. Mr. BROWN was a member of the Renick Presbyterian Church. He was born June 10, 1834, and was married to Miss Eliza M. McCOY on April 2, 1861. His wife preceded him to the grave on March 4, 1918. Six children survive, namely, J. Jordan, George M., Ida L., Susie M., all of Renick, and Mrs. W. F. BEARD, of Lewisburg. Mrs. Maude M. CALLISON, wife of George W. CALLISON, died at her home in Dayton, Va...On Friday night, April '13, 1923. The body was taken to Hillsboro, Pocahontas County, W.Va. Where funeral services were conducted from the home of a daughter, Mrs. James K. MARSHALL. Mrs. CALLISON was a daughter of the late Captain Wm. L. And Margaret BEARD McCLINTIC, of Hillsboro, one of the oldest and best known families of this state. She was born near Hillsboro, April 7, 1856, and spent practically her entire life there. The family removed to Dayton, Va., several years ago. On November 21, 1877, she was married to George W. CALLISON, who survives, with the following surviving children: Glenn CALLISON; R. H. CALLISON, and Miss Margaret CALLISON, all of Dayton; Mrs. Homer CALLISON of Clover Hill, and Mrs. James K. MARSHALL, Mrs. Carrie G. BEARD, and Mrs. George P. EDGAR, all of Hillsboro.

Rev. Daniel Clark HEDRICK was born July 26, 1846, at Fort Spring, W.Va., and departed for his coronation at Buckhannon, this state, on October 31, 1924, being 78 years, three months, and seven days of age. He leaves to mourn their loss, (not his loss, but his is gain), a wife, one sister, Mrs. Ruth IRWIN, of Fairfax, Mo., a number of nephews and nieces and a host of friends. He was married to Miss Mary M. DONNELY on May 16, 1878, and for more than forty-six years were so perfectly devoted to each other all these years, that life apart will seem exceedingly strange. For more than thirty years he watched over his delicate wife as a tender mother would care for a helpless babe; but, for the latter part of their last many years, it seemed that the Lord must have added what seems to be almost super-natural strength to her delicate body, as his former robust strength waned, that she might care for him in his declining years, upon whom he was so dependent as he sauntered towards the Western sunset so quietly and unexpectedly that the end came in much the same way as they had lived—when they two were alone in the hospital room, thus enabling her to do the very last acts of tenderness, gently closing the earthly windows as he marched out of the house to enter the new home of the soul. When asked a few moments before passing, by her who had been his life long companion, if he wanted anything, he replied with emphasis: "I want you!" His next words were spoken to those who awaited him on the other side-awaiting him to bid him welcome into the city of God. The writer of these few words thinks he can see him in his imagination, as he goes up and down those gold-paved streets with the blood-washed throng greeting the vast number of his loved ones who have preceded him-of course, having met his Savior first of all, who welcomed him into that fair land. Brother HEDRICK gave his heart to God while yet in his teens; was licensed to preach in Topeka, Kansas: he joined the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1876, and began his pastorates on one of the smallest charges of the Conference, where he was met by bitter antagonism; but, like many other pioneers, he faced his foes in the spirit of the Christ and won his way to among the best charges of his conference; serving a full term in the presiding eldership, as it was then called. When the Virginia Conference was dissolved and aded to adjoining Conferences, he went to the West Virginia Conference with his section in which e then lived. On account of failing health, he was under the painful necessity of retiring many years before his death. But he was always found in the services of his local church, as long as he was able to attend, being especially active in the class meeting. This writer received his first appointment under this man of God, as did many other young ministers in whom he always interested himself. He became a spiritual father toseveral young men who entered the ministry under his leadership.

Mr. Edgar W. COCHRAN, of Marlinton, Pocahontas County, died in Greenbrier General Hospital in this city early Thursday morning, May 29, 1924, at about two o'clock, the immediate cause being heart failure due to excessive poisoning of the blood from a stomach cancer. In every movement for the betterment of the community and county. Mr. McMILLION always chose the better part. While his face and form is no longer with us, we need only to look about us to see the fruits of his faithful, consistent and upright life. Oh, may we make his God our God and so live that it may be said of us, that we chose the better part.

Mrs. Susan THARP, of Loveridge, died shortly after midnight on the night of July 29, 1925, aged 73 years, one month and 27 days. Her funeral was conducted at Beulah Church on July 31st by Rev. N. S. HILL, and many sorrowing friends followed her body to the grave nearby to be placed near that of her husband, James THARP who preceded her in death nealry 17 years ago. Mrs. THARP was the mother of two boys and four girls; hr first child, a girl died in early childhood; one son, Rev. C. D. THARP, is a minister in the M. P. WICKLINE and was a Christian to the end of her journey. The "inter circle" of the writer's friends has been touched and one that has been a true Christian friend and good neighbor for more than thirty years has been removed, but in our sorrow, we are consoled by believing that our loss is her eternal gain. Gone but not forgotten.

ANOTHER BIG BEAR!

A big 400-pound bear was killedlat Friday morning near Briar Knob, on the south fork of Cherry river by R. C. CLARK, C. THARP, and W. B. HILL, Paris KEEN, and his dogs, of Renick. The big bear is credited with killing eight sheep for Clark and Tharp, and they set a trap for him. Bruin fell for the trap and carried it off, being followed for three or four miles by Mr. Clark. Word was sent to Mr. Hill and Keen for the dogs, and they lost no time getting the distance of about 11 miles to take up the chase. In the chase following the bear was located once or twice in thick brush, by the rustling of undergrowth, but a shot was not obtained till next morning. The dogs bayed him and when the bear raised to his hind feet and looked Hill in the face about 30 feet off. Hill's first shot felled the bear, but he tried to raise and Keen gave him a load, but the bear required more, and Clark handed Hill his Winchester, with which two more shots were fired into the beast. Mr. Hill now has 28 notches in his gun stock each representing the despatch of a bear. The hunters have a fine pelt, but the bear had to be cut up to before it could be carried out

Mrs. Lucinda J. (SAMMONS) TAYLOR, was born near Williamsburg, this county, January 22, 1852, and died on May 22, 1925, in her 73rd year. For some time her health had been failing, and on April 7th she entered Dr. Love's hospital at Ronceverte as a patient. All that medical skill and loving hands could accomplish was done to alleviate her suffering and bring about her recovery and her splendid spirit responded to each effort, but her physical strength finally gave way. With the exception of her daughters in Ohio, who were unable to be with her, all her children visited her during her last illness and tried to nurse her back to health. She had that fine mother instinct that ever drew her children home, however diverse their interests and separated their dwelling. Besides she had lovely traits of character which won her many true and loyal friends-"none knew her but to love her; none named her but to praise." In young girlhood she made a profession of faith and joined the Methodist Church. She lived a true Christian life. Her husband, Zachariah Taylor and five of her children preceded her to the grave. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. G. A. GERNER, of Esty, and eight children who mourn the loss of a faithful and loving mother. The children are: M. M. And B. B. Taylor, Mrs. W. B. W. M.. MILLER, assisted by Rev. Mr. POPE, her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Renick. When the announcement reached the Williamsburg community last Sunday morning, February 22, 1925, that Miss Minnie Lake had passed away it came as a shock, and the most sincere sorrow was manifested. She was sick only a week. Her friends did not think her condition serious until Saturday, and then she was taken to Dr. Love's Hospital at Ronceverte, Saturday afternoon .at 4 and operated upon at 5:30 p.m. for strangulated hernia. She was conscious until a short time before her death which occurred at 1:10 a.m. Sunday morning. She suffered most intensely but bore it with the greatest of patience and fortitude. While hearts are made lonely and sad by reason of her absence from earth, there is only a little time of waiting to be reunited in that home above. She will be greatly missed from Sunday school and church, from her home and the community in which she lived. Miss Minnie possessed those beautiful graces of character and manners which make up the strength of purity, the highest type of womanhood. She was a daughter of the late Alexander KNIGHT and Virginia WHITING KNIGHT. She leaves one brother, T. A. KNIGHT and one sister, Miss Emma KNIGHT, both of Williamsburg. Our sorrow cannot call her back; she has gone from the busy scenes of this life to the sweet repose of the blessed. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. G. It will be remembered that on last March this child's mother, sister, and brother were killed by Tiny McCOY, this making the fourth death in the family within one year. The body was brought to TOTTEN, this county for burial.

On the evening of June 30, 1926, Miss Opal COOKE, aged 19 years died at Dr. Love's hospital at Ronceverte, from some throat affection. She was the youngest daughter of Rev. And Mrs. A. J. COOKE. She was a member of the graduating class of 1925 of the Hillsboro High School. She had taught one successful term of school and was ready to attend Normal School at Atena when death claimed her. It was one of June's rare, sweet days when the old world seemed glorified with a beauty let down from the skies. The windows of that upper room of Dr. Love's hospital were open wide. Through the lace work of the leaves the sun poured its wealth of gold. The soft sweet breeze blowing through the trees, made shadows on the floor, the birds sang as though it were the bridal of the sky. Her physician made his call and said the end was near at hand. As the shadows of death came, her face was grave with pain, but when she saw God's messenger coming for her it relaxed into a sweet smile which remained fixed, because she was entering where all pain and sorrow are no more. Her life now seems a vision of eternal verities. It leaves a message to us in soft whispers be still, don't complain, let the Lord have His way with you and all will be well. The large crowd at her funeral, the beautiful flowers, the grief manifested, showed how Opal was loved by her many friends.

On November 27, 1879, she was united in marriage to Mallard Dickson ANDERSON, who preceded her to the grea beyond on March 4, 1900. To this union were born five children, Mrs. W. G. CURRY, of Huntington; Mrs. P. C. CURRY, of Marlinton; Harper ANDERSON, of Lobelia, and Emery ANDERSON, of Spice. The youngest daughter died in infancy, Besides these sons and daughters, she leaves on half brother, Francis McCOY of Stony Creek, and a host of other relatives and friends. When only a little girl she became a Christian and united with the M. E. Church, remaining faithful to the end. She was a devoted wife and mother, a kind neighbor and was loved and respected by all who knew her. Although never strong physically she possessed that faith in God and a deep religious conviction which enable her to bear her burdens. After the death of her husband she took her duties alone, caring for her aged father-in-law during an illness of four years until his death. During the last fourteen years of her life she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. P. C. CURRY, of Marlinton. Her declining years were much saddened by the illness of her oldest son, Harper ANDERSON, who is now a helpless cripple. Though it all she kept the faith and bore her sufferings with that sweet and gentle patience and resignation so becoming to a Christian mother, and left behind a testimony which leaves no doubt in the minds of her friends that she is now safe in the arms of Jesus. Her funeral was conducted in the M. E. Church at Lobelia, by Rev. Nelson Hill, assisted by Rev. S. R. NEEL, after which her body was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the Hill Cemetery. "We cannot say and we will not say, That she is dead, she is just away, With submissive smile and a wave of the hand, She has entered into that better land, And left us thinking how very fair, It needs must be, since she lingers there; And you, oh you, who so fondly yearn, For the welcome step and the glad return, Think of her living on as dear, In the land of these as the land of here.

Dr. Raymond LOCKRIDGE died on Friday, June 18, 1926, at his home near Knoxville, Tennessee. The cause of his death was a cerebral hemorrhage, and his passing out was very sudden and unexpected. He had been sick for a day or two, but he did not appear ill enough to cause apprehension. Last winter he was hurt in an automobile wreck, and it is thought probably that these injuries brought about the condition that caused his death. Dr. LOCKRIDGE was the eldest son of Mrs. Maggie WARWICK LOCKRIDGE of Minnehaha Spring, and the late Dr. J. B. LOCKRIDGE. His age was thirty-four years. His sisters are Mrs. Boyd CAMPBELL of Frankford, and Miss Georgia LOCKRIDGE: his brothers, Newton, Julian, Hal, and Horace LOCKRIDGE. Dr. LOCKRIDGE was a rising young physician; he was in charge of a hospital; his life was one of great usefulness. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Sarah RUCKMAN, a daughter of Glenn RUCKMAN, of Staunton. Dr. LOCKRIDGE's body was brought to Staunton, and buried in Thornrose Cemetery, the service being conducted from the Ruckman home on Monday Morning.

The church militant has lost one of its members but we trust that the great church of the Triumphant has its number increased by his departure from this life into life eternal. "Servant of God, well done, Thy glorious warfare's past."

The last four years she had resided in Ronceverte in order to care for her aged parents, Early in life she became a Christian and connected with the M. E. Church, South. Her life from that time on was one of faithful, courageous, joyful devotion to duty. Where duty called she was never wanting, even to the sacrificing of her own home, to make a home for her parents. She entered whole-heartedly into everything having as its aim constructive Christian citizenship, being a charter member of the W.C.T.U., the honored president of the Woman's Missionary Society of her Church, and active in the several organizations of the Church. This community has lost a constructive citizen of the church a faithful

REV. RALPH R. LITTLE—A TRIBUTE

Rev. C. M. NEFF

The Rev. Ralph R. LITTLE, the son of Thomas and Ellen LITTLE, was born February 8, 1850, near Oakvale, Mercer County, W.Va. And departed this life February 13, 1927, aged seventy-seven years. He was converted on July 20, 1867, at an old-time Methodist altar, under the pastorate of the Rev Robert SLUFFEY, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was licensed to preach, June 1874. He was received on trial in the Virginia Conference in 1880, at Norfolk, Va., and was ordained deacon by Bishop SIMPSON, in 1882, at Manassas, and elder by Bishop FOSTER, at Roanoke, in 1885. He served several pastoral charges in the Conference very acceptably, and one term as President elder of the Greenbrier District. Brother LITTLE is survived by his widow, who before marriage was Miss Adelaide CHAMBERS, of Lindside, W.Va., also by eight children, four boys and four girls, as follows: J. C. LITTLE, of McAlpiin, W.Va., H. LITTLE, of Lindside, W.Va.., N. L. LITTLE, of Mullins, W.Va.; A. D. LITTLE, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. A. MILLER and Mrs. Florence BLAND, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. H. D. DENISON, of Elkins, W.Va.; and Mrs. BRADLEY, of Lindside, W.Va. Brother LITTLE was transferred into the West Virginia Conference in the year 1906, and went on the retired list about fifteen years ago. He was a good Christian man, and an able minister of the gospel. He endured hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, and I believe I am safe in saying that, while he was expiring on the operating table, he could say with Paul: "I am now ready to be offered....... I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day." May we all meet him on the other side!

Charles F. EAGLE died at the home of his son, John EAGLE, at Julia, this county, on Thursday, May 19, 1927. His age was 89 years and two months. His death was due to the infirmities of extreme old age. On Saturday his body was carried to Lobelia, Pocahontas County, and buried beside the grave of his wife, who preceded him three years ago. Mr. EAGLE was a native of Clay County, but the greater part of his life was spent at Lobelia. His wife was Miss Elizabeth ANDERSON, of Lewisburg. To them were born seven children. Enoch and Mollie are dead. The surviving children are Miss Margaret, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. T. M. McCARTY of Fairmont; Mrs. A. S. HILL, of Marlinton; Edward C. EAGLE, of Hinton, and John EAGLE, of Julia.

The sable wings of death hovered over the home of Mr. And Mrs. Jacob CARAWAY, at Julia, W.Va., During the past week and in the early morning hours of Tuesday, August 9, 1927, they bore the spirit of Ethel L., the eldest daughter, to the heavenly home. She was born March 8, 1912, and was therefore fifteen years, five months and one day old. "A maiden standing with reluctant feet where the brook and river meet."For several weeks she had suffered from a severe cold, which later developed mastoiditis; skilled physicians were employed, but the disease pursued its fatal course. Funeral services were conducted in the M. E. Church, South, of Hillsboro, by Rev. Mr. LAWSON, assisted by Rev. J. C. JOHNSON and Rev. Mr. HIPES. Members of her graduation class acted as pall bearers. The floral tributes and the many people present were mute testimony to the beautiful life which Ethel had lived. Not only will her going leave a void that can never be filled in their lives of her dear ones, but there will be felt an irreparable loss of a sweet presence in the lives of all who knew her. After the funeral services the body was tenderly laid to rest in the Old Brick Church Cemetery. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved father and mother and to the two small sisters. R.

On August 4, 1927, the many friends of Mrs. Lucy A. MYLES, on Renicks Valley, were sorely grieved to learn of her death. She had been taken to the hospital in Ronceverte for treatment, but her case proved hopeless and her soul took its flight back to the one who gave it, there to await the coming of her loved ones. She was born February 5, 1859, and was in her 68th year at the time of her death. She united with the Presbyterian Church in early life, living a beautiful Christian life all these years. Her funeral was conducted at this church by Rev. Mr. PORTER and her body tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery close by amid a large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives. In July, 1895, she was united in marriage to Reuben C. MYLES, who preceded her to the grave sixteen years ago. She left two children, Stella and Virgil, and five step-children, Arthur and Fred, of Kansas, and Maude, Mary and Bessie, of this community, with a host of other relations and friends to mourn her loss. Her life could well be followed as an example by us all. She was a true and loyal Christian, a patient and loving mother.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

Mrs. Jane MOORE McCOLLAM, wife of George W. McCOLLAM, died at the County Memorial Hospital on Friday forenoon, September 23, 1927he had been ill for about a month, but for a number of years her health has not been the best. Her age was 58 years, having been born July 12, 1869. Burial in the Mount View Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, the service being conducted from the Methodist Church by Rev. S. R. NEEL. MRS. McCOLLAM was a daughter of Aaron and Susan BEVERAGE MOORE. She was reared at the MOORE homestead near Marlinton. Of her father's family there remain her sister, Mrs. C. C. BAXTER, of Onoto; her brothers, Andres, John W., Theodore and E. C. MOORE of Marlinton, More than thirty years ago she became the wife of George W. McCOLLAM, who survives. Their home in Marlinton was noted for its hospitality and good cheer. Mrs. McCOLLAM was a good woman, who did well her part as daughter, sister, wife, friend and neighbor. The heart of her husband safely trusted in her, and she did him good and not evil all the days of her life.

The community of Marlinton was shocked on Saturday noon, December 31, 1927, by the announcement that Mrs. Mary Frances McNULTY McNEEL, wife of T. S. McNEEL, was dead. She had been sick two days with pneumonia. Her age was 51 years. On Monday her body was laid to rest in Mt. View Cemetery, the service being conducted from the Presbyterian Church by Rev. K. W. BOWEN, Rev. J. C. JOHNSON and Rev. S. R. NEEL. The church was packed with friends who came to pay tribute of respect to her memory. Mary Frances MCNULTY McNEEL, daughter of Frank and Frances WILSON McNULTY, was born near Meadow Dale, Highland County, Va., July 11, 1876. She was married to Thomas Summers McNEEL in the old Presbyterian Church at Marlinton, July 8, 1904, by Rev. William T. PRICE, the first pastor of the church. She united with the church of her father and mother, the Pisgah Presbyterian, at Meadow Dale, in early childhood, upon her profession of faith in Christ, and never, during the years to come, did her love for and devotion to the faith of her fathers lose its vigor or cease to be the chosen field of her chief activities. When she came to Marlinton to make her home, she transferred her membership to the Marlinton Church and has been a hard-working member there ever since, except for five years when she lived at Hillsboro where she took her letter to the Oak Grove Presbyterian Church and her chief delight was to labor for it. However, her activities were by no means confined to the church. She was broad in her sympathies and was interested in every movement that had for its object the improvement of life and the circumstances of living. She was for some years a much-loved school teacher, first in her native country of Highland, Virginia, and later in Marlington. She was at the time of her death, President of the Woman's Federated Club of Marlinton and was vitally interested in other movements and organizations. Naturally active, she loved to be in the currents of life moving about her, and her counsel was constantly being called for by her fellow workers. Yet her great love, outside her family, was for her church and at the time of her passing, she was secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of Marlinton Presbyterian Church, and as chairman of the nominating committee of Greenbrier Presbyterian, had made arrangements for a meeting of the committee with a few days, a gathering which she will not be permitted to attend in the flesh. Thus it will be seen that her mind and hands were busy in the interests of her Lord almost to the very end. A woman of pronounced principle, her, ideals found their best exemplification in those channels. July 8th of this year, would have been the twenty fifth anniversary of her wedding. She was looking forward to the occasion with peculiar interest. The entire wedding party some twelve in number, were to have been present. Now she has been the first of the group to hear the call of the Savior to come up higher. Married at the hour of noon, the final, somewhat sadden call came, near the noon hour, December 31, 1927. Mrs. McNEEL is survived by her husband, Thomas Summers McNEEL, one daughter, Nancy, now a student in West Virginia University, to graduate in February; one sister, Mrs. Annie L. ARBOGAST, wife of E. M. ARBOGAST, now of Los Angeles, California, and one brother Charles S. McNULTY, attorney of Roanoke. A great attendance assembled in the Presbyterian Church. Monday at two o'clock p.m. to pay the final respects to the remains of Mrs. T. S. McNEEL, who passed suddenly from this life about noon, December 31st. Rev. K. V. BOWEN, pastor of the church was in charge, he being assisted by Revs. S. R. NEEL, of Marlinton, and J. C. JOHNSON, of Hillsboro. The service was brief, dignified and beautiful one that will be long remembered by those present, as being especially appropriate for the splendid woman in whose honor they were held. Interment was in the Marlinton Cemetery, where there was a brief service at the grave. The obituary and other material used at the church will be found elsewhere.

Mr. HOOVER left Marlinton about half past five o'clock in a closed automobile to drive to Huntersville. A little before six o'clock Isaac BARLOW was coming to Marlinton and saw a car out in the middle of the stream. .His attention was attracted by the lights. He could see no one in the car, and he hurried to town for assistance. In a short time a number of men were on the scene. The car had washed down several hundred yards and toward the opposite side of the stream. C. R. COOPER swam the swift flowing waters to the car to see if the driver was still in it. The automobile was identified as Mr. HOOVER'S by the license number. He had been washed out through the top, which was broken when the car was turned over. Search was made through the night for Mr. HOOVER, but his body was not found until noon the next day. The water had receded and his body was seen at the lower end of a small island, over a quarter of a mile below the place where his automobile went over the bank into the stream. His body was taken to Z . S. SMITH's undertaking parlors. The physicians decision was that Mr. HOOVER had come to his death by drowning. There were signs that he had received heavy blows on the chest and on the head when his car turned over. At the place where the automobile went into the creek the water ran deep and swift right at the edge of the road. There were wheel tracks to show that the car had been at the edge of the bank for some distance before turning over. A reasonable supposition is that the heavy rain and fog prevented him from seeing the road. Two years ago near this place two other men, John MANN and Aaron THOMAS were drowned when their car went over the road into Knapps Creek on a foggy, stormy night. On Sunday Mr. HOOVER'S body was taken to his old home at Thorn, in Pendleton County for burial. The funeral service was conducted on Monday from the HOOVER home, by Rev. Mr. STEPHENS of the Southern Methodist Church. An immense congregation from several counties were present to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of their friend. Burial in the HOOVER family graveyard. The pall bearers were George P. EDGAR, Dr. H. C. SOLTER, Fred C. ALLEN, H. KELMENSON, Marion, Dr. E. G. HEROLD, W. C. HOUSEHOLDER, and Frank R. HILL. James N. WHITE died on Monday morning, December 3, 1928, at the Vance Hotel in Statesville, North Carolina. Mr. White was a prominent farmer and lumberman of Pocahontas County. About fifteen years ago he retired from active business operations, and since that time he has spent much of his time in the South. Mr. White was a son of the late George WHITE. He was born near Monterey. Fifty years ago the WHITE family moved to Pocahontas Coounty. Of his fathers family there remain F. Marion WHITE, of Edray, and Mrs. Sallie White BURNS, of Virginia. Mr. White's wife was Miss Ruth BARLOW, daughter of the late Henry BARLOW. She and their three children survive: Rev. Lockhart Mathews McCLINTIC, for forty-three years a member of the bar of Pocahontas County, was born April 12, 1860, and departed this life April 12, 1928, aged sixty eight years. He was an able, honorable and up right man and a leader and chieftain of the mountains among which he spent his long and useful life. He first saw the light of day in the village of Mill Point, the oldest of a family of five sons. He came from a long line of Scotch-Irish ancestry. The pioneer was Alexander McCLINTIC, who settled in America in the year 1725, bringing with him his family including a son named William McCLINTIC. This son came to

of the Revolution, who was the father Moses McCLINTIC, who had a son William Hunter McCLINTIC. William H. McCLINTIC married Mary A. MATHEWS, the only child of Sampson L. MATHEWS, of Pocahontas County. Mrs. William H. McCLINTIC was a great granddaughter of Major Jacob WARWICK, of the Revolution, and a direct descendant of Col. Sampson MATHEWS, a Colonial County Lieutenant of Augusta County. The five sons of Mr. And Mrs. Wm. H. McCLINTIC were the subject of this memorial, E. D. McCLINTIC, of Seattle, Washington; Hunter McCLINTIC, deceased, Withrow McCLINTIC, of Pocahontas County, and Judge George W. McCLINTIC, of Charleston, federal judge. L. M. McCOLINTIC was married in 1888 to Miss Allie SLAVEN, at Huntersville, one of Pocahontas Count's fairest and most amiable daughters. There were four children, Miss Mary M. McCLINTIC, and Miss Alice McCLINTIC, Marlinton, and Captain John H. McCLINTIC, of Charleston. A young son, George, who greatly resembled his father, was the victim of a very distressing accident about twenty years ago from a horse, and died as a young boy. Lock McCLINTIC, as he was known far and wide grew up on a farm. He was trained to farm work. He was tall and broad and hardly knew the limit of his strength. He was devoted to the woods and was a noted hunter and fisherman as well as a close student of nature, and his love for the woods and streams was never abated through life. He was a much at home in the camp as he was in court. His people were large landowners and engaged in farming and stock raising, but it was realized that the love of learning that early developed in the sons called for educational facilities that were hard to provide in that day and time. So they moved for purposes of schooling the sons to Salem, Virginia, to give the boys an opportunity to attend Roanoke College. It was here that they received the academic education that was well supplied by that ancient institution, and Lock and Judge McCLINTIC then took their law courses at the University of Virginia, L. M. McClintic qualified to practice law in Pocahontas County, October 23, 1885, and immediately attained an important practice which he maintained for more than forty years. He held many places of trust and importance but his eminence is due more to his proficiency in the profession of the law. He was a deep thinker, a wise counselor, and an able advocate. He was a giant in size and to the casual observer of a rather stern cast of features, but I have always noticed that little children saw him as he was and went to him without fear. As a matter of fact, he had a tender heart and a keen insight into the problems of youth and many remember his kindness and consideration, to them in the days of their youth. I am not so much younger than he but I owe him the memory of such kindness. I remember the first time that I saw him. I was a young boy and I stepped up to him and shook hands with him, and I do not think I ever did that as a boy to any other stranger. When I came to the bar, he had been practicing for seven years and was prosecuting attorney of Pocahontas County. Some law suits gravitated to me. I had never been about a county seat. I had an idea that lawyers were natural born enemies of each other. The suits that had been entrusted to me were highly embarrassing for it had been said that if the blind lead the blind that disaster will overtake both. I took my courage in my hand and laid my problems before the older attorney and he showed me how to go on with them and in a short time I got more insight into the intricacies of the law than much schooling in the universities could have given me. A slight rebuff at that time would have turned me away from the noble profession and I have tried to live up to his example with younger men ever since. In passing it should be mentioned that a strong trait in his character was an inborn hate of can't and hypocrisy. He would get all there was out of a set of circumstances called a lawsuit, but he never advocated any measure or opinion that he did not fully believe, and this gave him a high standing with the judges of the court, and without exception the courts have shown the utmost confidence in the honesty of his convictions. He was not much in the habit of classical quotation but he lived true to one of them, and that is an honest man is the noblest work of God. He was exceedingly fond of reading. I mean by that the literature of yesterday and today. He was a close student of law with a very extensive library but in his hours of ease he read continually and appreciated the beautiful thoughts of ancient and modern writers, and this greatly broadened and brightened his life...I cannot go into infinite detail in this tribute. A book would not contain the noteworthy facts of his life. The imperishable records of the counties of West Virginia hold ample evidence for the work of any historian of the future who would write his life. He was the senior member of the bar. The President of the great local bank. An elder in the Presbyterian Church. A Mason of many years standing. A kind and indulgent husband and father. A good friend. A worthy Adversary. The funeral services of the late L. M. McCLINTIC was conducted from the Presbyterian Church on last Friday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. K. V. BOWEN, assisted by Rev. H. H. ORR, a former pastor. A very large congregation was present. His body was laid to rest in the family plot in Mt. View Cemetery with Masonic Honors. The floral tributes were remarkable for their profusion and beauty. The active pall bearers were John MOORE, Fred ALLEN, Dick SMITH, Dr. E. G. HEROLD, Frank P. ANDERSON and A. O. BAXTER. The honorary pall bearers were: Dr. SOLTER, Judge SHARP, A. P. EDGAR, W. H. BARLOW, D. C. ADKISON, F. M. SYDNOR, George W. SHARP, Dr. H. W. McNEEL, T. S. McNEEL, Hubert ECHOLS, George P. EDGAR, H. H. BYRD, W. A. BRATTON, P. S. WARN, J. A. SYDENSTRICKER, R. S. SPILIMAN, J. A. McLAUGLIN, J. E. BUCKLEY, Judge C. F. MOORE, F. R. T. WARD, Judge C. S. Howard McCLINTIC, J. W. HILL, A. E. SMITH, S. N. HENCH, Elmer MOORE, E. D. TALBOTT, Murray BRIGGS, E. P. SHAFFER, Dr. U. H. On April 18 he was seen at various places on the railroad between Thorny Creek and Stony Bottom and was last seen at the home of John PERRY at Thorny Creek. B. D. MORRISON.

"Death enters and there's no defense; His time there's none can tell."

How true are the lines of the poet. On October 13, 1933, B. D. MORRISON, a resident of the Loveridge community, was about the cares of life throughout the day, but late in the day was painfully stricken and a physician called to attend him. But medical aid kind care failed to relieve his sufferings from heart trouble, and he answered the last sudden call and went out into eternity. Funeral services were conducted at his late home on Sunday by Rev. Joseph SMITH, and his earthly remains, surrounded by a large crowd of relatives and friends were conveyed to the Lewis Cemetery by the Wallace Undertakers and laid to rest beside the graves of his first wife and several children. Mr. MORRISON was a son of Thomas and Rebecca MORRISON, long deceased, and of a large family there now only remain two sisters, Mrs. Mary LEWIS of Leonard and Mrs. Kate LOUDERMILK, of Sun City, Kansas. He was twice married, first to Mrs. Hettie LEWIS, and of the children born to their union, six survive – Enoch, Harry, and Elmer MORRISON, Mrs. Ethel HOLMES, Mrs. Maggie MACMILLIAN, and Mrs. Clara CLUTTER; his second marriage was to Miss Florence BOGGS, who survives, with five young children. He was born October 5, 1868.

Mr. J. D. RAY, of Renick, died suddenly of heart trouble at his home on Tuesday, September 26, 1933. His age was 70 years, 6 months, and 15 days. He had long been a sufferer, but was much improved and death came unexpectedly to his family and many friends. He is survived by his widow, three brothers, seven children, 27 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. The surviving sons are: John RAY of Louisville, Ky.; Frank and William RAY, of Renick, and Walter RAY, of York, Pa.. Surviving daughters are Mrs. Albert SNEDEGAR and Mrs. Calvin BUSBY, of Williamsburg, and Mrs. L. C. GWINN, of Quinnimont. The funeral service was held in the Renick Presbyterian Church and burial was in the Falling Spring Cemetery.

Mrs. Rebecca J. MAYS, 84 years old, died at her home at Renick last Saturday, February 4, 1933, of pneumonia. She was born at Hillsboro, Pocahontas County, November 10, 1849, and had lived at Renick for many years. Her only surviving relative is a niece, Mrs. Edith CALLAGHAN, of Locust. Funeral services were held Sunday at the Old Droop Church on Droop Mountain and burial was in the cemetery adjoining.

On Saturday word came of the sudden death of Mrs. Daisy SHARP at her home in Washington City, February 11, 1933. She was the widow of the late W. B. SHARP, and a daughter of the late B. M. YEAGER. Her body was buried in Washington beside her husband. She is survived by her two children. Also by her sisters, Mrs. Andrew GATEWOOD of Pulaski, Virginia., and Mrs. Texie CARROLL, of Cumberland, Md.; her brothers, J. W., Dr. J. M. Sterling Bruce and Paul YEAGER. Samuel SHEETS, aged 66 years, died at his home near Hillsboro on Sunday night, October 15, 1933. He had been in poor health a number of years, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. On Tuesday afternoon, the funeral service was conducted from the Hillsboro Methodist Church; burial in the Dunmore Cemetery. Thus is noted the passing of one of the foremost citizens of Pocahontas County. For a number of terms he served as deputy sheriff, and he recently completed a term as president of the Board of Education of Levels District. He was a son of the late George SHEETS. His mother's name was RATLIFF. Among the remaining members of his fathers's family are Griffe and Edward SHEETS: Mrs. Price GRAGG and Mrs. W. H. ADKISON. A sister, Mrs. Hulda CASSELL, died a few weeks ago. Mr. SHEETS was twice married. His first wife was Miss Lucy SIPLE. To them a son was born, June. He was carried away in the influenza epidemic in 1918 as he was entering manhood. His second wife was Miss Lucy SHARP, of Douthards Creek; To them were born four daughters, Elizabeth, Glenna, Alice, and Hattie J. They and their mother survive. Growing up in a country ravaged by war, Mr. SHEETS had his own way to make. While working on a log drive in Greenbrier River, over forty years ago, his leg was caught in the bight of a rope, causing injuries which necessitated amputation. Nothing daunted, he took up business and later public office, and was successful. In religion, Mr. SHEETS was a member of the Southern Methodist Church. He took an active interest in church work, and for many years he served as a member of the official board.

Dr. O. H. KEE, aged 64 years, was found dead in his bed at his home in Martinson on Tuesday morning, October 17, 1933. The cause of his death was heart failure. The night before he had retired apparently in his usual health; in fact he spent the day before in the woods hunting. The funeral service will be conducted from the home on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. G. WINTON, pastor of the Martinson Methodist Church; burial in Mt. View Cemetery with Masonic Honors. Dr. Kee was a prominent citizen of PocahontasCounty. At the time of his death he held the office of school land commissioner, and he had served as President of the Board of Education of Edray District. For many years he was in the drug business, conducting a store in Martinson. He was an authority on birds and at the time of his death he was at work listing the birds of Pocahontas County, for a national bird society. He was a man of liberal education, and took a prominent part in affairs. Dr. Kee was the eldest child of the late Aaron and Milly McNELL KEE. Of his father's family there remain Mrs. James I. BEVERAGE, Cresap KEE, Mrs. D. P. BARNES, Mrs. W. A. McLAUGHLIN and Miss Viola KEE. Dr. KEE married Miss Neva McNELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McNELL, who survives her husband.

Mrs. Alice McLAUGHLIN BROOKS, aged 69 years, four months, and two days, wife of James BROOKS, died at her home near Dunmore on Tuesday, February 28, 1933. The cause of her death was cancer. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from Baxter Presbyterian Church by her pastor, Rev. D. M. MONROE: burial in the home graveyard. Mrs. BROOKS was a daughter of the late Mr. And Mrs. Hugh McLAUGHLIN. Of this family of twelve children there remains three daughters, Mrs. Wm. DEPUTY, Mrs. CORBETT, and Mrs. Charles A. SHARP, and four sons, Musto, Charles, Letcher, and Jacob McCLAUGHLIN. She became the wife of James BROOKS, who survives. To this union was born one son, Mack BROOKS, principal of the Cass School. In early life Mrs. Brooks fitted herself for the profession of teaching, and for many years she was a most successful teacher in the schools of Pocahontas County. In religion Mrs. BROOKS belonged to the church of her fathers, the Presbyterian, and she was interested and active in the causeSusie Cornelia SNEDEGAR, born in Virginia, August 1, 1871, daughter of the late Rev. A. M. And Catherine CHAPPELL, died February 26, 1934. Funeral and burial were at the Jacox M. E. Church the Rev. Robert BRACKEN officiating. She is survived by her husband, Richard R. SNEDEGAR, her mother and brother, J. Elbert CHAPPELL, of Cumberland, Md., and the following children, all of whom were present at her burial; Mrs. Grace BROCK, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Nora FORDYCHE, of Clarksburg; Mrs. Prudence BRUFFEY, Mrs. Susie GRAGG, of Washington, D. C., and Keith SNEDEGAR, of Orange, Va.. Fourteen grandchildren also survive. A strange cycle has been broken.....Mrs. SNEDEGAR was 19 years younger than her mother; 19 years older than her older child, who in turn became a mother at nineteen. Though born in Virginia, most of her life was spent in the vicinity in which she died, where she was known and loved as a devoted Christian mother and neighbor. She lived more than three score years, yet seeming not to be old and with her faculties not dulled by age, illness nor decay of strength. Taken with only a few days' of extreme illness from the duties and activities in which she found peace and contentment. She died as she had lived, in calm submission to her Heavenly Father's will, with an unfaltering faith in the life and immortality which are brought to light in the gospel she loved. Her relations to others were always kindly and charitable; she bore her trials and sorrows, from which no human lot is free, with, serene composure and with devout submission to the Divine Will; with her Bible as her guide-such a life could hardly fail to be happy. One of her greatest joys in life was in the presence of her children and grandchildren who always gave to her in full measure the loving devotion and consideration accorded to one who has served so well the generation to which they belong; with simplicity, humility, and forgetfulness of self, which constitute the dignity of all Christian service, she rendered unto them, her little church and her community an humble service, thinking always of the ne great Master who was content to be servant to all. Her illness became acute on Friday and on Saturday her doctor gave up hope, but she lingered through the Sabbath and he succeeding night, the body growing weaker but the mind clear and her soul in perfect peace; in the presence of her youngest daughter, her spirit passed with the dawn of a new day as though she realized that just then a bitter storm was settling over her part of the world, against which she could hold out no longer. Happy, fortunate servant of the Divine Master, to thus pass from the dawn of an earthly day and the approach of the storm to the warm and changeless light of that heavenly world where they have no need of the sun for the Lord God giveth them light and storms are not known. There are thoughts and memories of her as a mother and friend which death only makes more precious and sacred; there is a vacancy which can only be filled by the affections, trusts and hopes which go beyond all that is mortal.

For her our tears shall fall, For her our prayers ascend, To her our toils and cares be given, Till toils and cares shall end.

Ellis McCARTY, aged 81 years, died Sunday morning, December 29, 1935, after a few weeks illness with an infected blood stream. He was the son of David and Susan HARPER McCARTY, and the last one of their family. He married Sallie HILL, who preceded him to the grave not long since. The report is that GALFORD got angry with his son-in-law, went for his shot gun, and shot him down at close range. The charge took effect in his breast and he died immediately. Frank JORDAN was one of the children of the late William JORDAN, of Elk. His brother is Robert JORDAN, of Martinson, and his sister is Mrs. E. M. SMITH, of Edray. And Jane McCOY McCOLLAM, of Bucks Mountain. He married Jane MOORE, daughter of the late Mr. And Mrs. Aaron MOORE, of Martinson. She preceded him to the grave ten years and one month. There were no children born to this union. Thus is noted the passing of one of the best men the County of Pocahontas has produced. Coming up at a time when the countryside had been destroyed by war, he fitted himself for the profession of teaching. Later he went to Missouri and other western states. Called home by the advancing years of his father, he devoted himself to farming the ancestral acres of the old homestead. When the time came for the development timber and much lumber was marketed by being rafted on Greenbrier River to the railroad, Mr. McCOLLAM was in demand as expert river pilot. Nearly forty years ago he moved to Martinson to engage in the transfer business. Mr. McCOLLAM was of sturdy pioneer stock. His grandfather William McCOLLAM, married Sally DRINNEN, daughter of Lawrence DRINNON, whose wife was a daughter of Jacob MARLIN, the first white resident of Martinson, 1749. Mr. McCOLLAM was a kindly man; a natural born gentleman. He made friends and kept them. He possessed a strong, bright mind, and a keen sense of humor. I treasure his memory as a life long friend.

On Sunday afternoon, April 3, 1938, the death angel visited the town of Renick and took out of this life, Maybury Goheen MYLES, one of Greenbrier's oldest and best citizens. He was the son of Samuel and Rebecca BURR MYLES, and the oldest as well as the last surviving member of his parents' family of seven children. He was born April 14, 1853, and therefore lacked a few days of reaching 85 years. On February 11 he was stricken with paralysis and was confined to his bed until his death and while his suffering was great, he bore it with patience and Christian fortitude, calmly awaiting the end, which he well knew was near. A few invited guests enjoyed hospitality of Mr. And Mrs,. James SHARP last Wednesday on the occasion of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Vigil to Mr. Romie HANNAH, of Friar's Hill. The happy young couple, accompanied by Cammie SHARP, the bride's brother, and Miss Minnie MACMILLIAN, of Leonard, went to the home of Rev. J. S. WICKLINE, of Falling Spring, and were united in marriage, and returned to Mr. THARP'S in the afternoon, where a bountiful table was awaiting them. These young people have many friends to wish them happiness through life. The bride was the recipient of some handsome and useful bridal gifts.

Death has again entered the home of Alvin MORRISON, at Loveridge, and claimed for his victim, Oliver, the eldest child, aged 14 years and 3 months. The heart-broken father is almost prostrated with grief, this being the third death in his family in the last six weeks and the forth in the past fourteen months. It would appear that Mr. MORRISON has had more than his share of trouble, as he has buried two wives and four children, and has left but one daughter to comfort him. The beautiful hymn,

"God moves in a mysterious way,

His wonders to perform."

And also,

God is his own interpreter And He will make it plain,"

has been very much impressed upon the mind of the writer while thinking of our neighbor's trouble and sorrow. We cannot now in our darkened life see or understand God's ways, but after while all these mysteries will be made plain, and we will see that God made no mistakes and that He has done all things well. Mr. MORRISON had talked with his son during his illness and he told him he was trusting in Jesus, and the father has the assurance that his boy has fallen asleep in the arms of a loving Savior. Mr. MORRISON has many friends to sympathize with and pray with him in this sad time of affliction.

The nuptials of B. F. HANNAH and Miss Lena C. HILL were solemnized by the Rev. S. C. MORGAN at the residence of the brides father, Mr. Peter HILL, in the little valley of Hill's Creek, near Hillsboro, on the 26th of last month. The grand old-fashioned farmhouse was crowded with friends of the bride and groom, and after the ceremony all sat down to a wedding dinner beautiful with every sort of a good thing eatable. The dining-room was decorated with snow-ball and ferns. After all had dined, a group of Mr. HILL'S family and also the party from Greenbrier were photographed Then we retired to the beautiful apple groves where the sweet sons of the birds made all cheerful and happy. The day following, the happy pair, accompanied by Mr. Emory McCLUNG and Miss Kate AYERS, and Mr. L. C. HANNAH and Miss D. B. McCLUNG, and others drove to the groom's home in Greenbrier. Among those present were Misses Glenna HILL, Addie WATTS, and Allie McLAUGHLIN. The writer with many others wishes Mr. Hannah and his charming wife a happy and unreadable married life.

A very pretty wedding took place at the M. E. Parsonage, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Mary Elizabeth NEESE, of this town, became the bride of Mr. Harry S. THIEL, of Wilmington,. The wedding march was played throughout the ceremony by Miss Mildred B. ONLEY. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue traveling suit. They left on the 3.39 express for Philadelphia, Buffalo and Canada, on their return they will reside in Wilmington. SOLOWAY, of Philadelphia; Mrs. William H. KIRN, Mrs. Harry McCOMB, Messrs. Elbert H. NEESE, Clyde NEESE, Harry NEESE, Mr. And Mrs. C. G. NEESE and son, Miss Nellie NEESE. Mr. John W. The fine farm residence of Henry W. BEARD of Hillsboro was destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon. The fire is supposed to have been caused from sparks from the kitchen flue falling on the shingle roof of a porch. The house was entirely destroyed but much of the furniture was saved. The loss is around $5,000. Partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Alice Mary HORNE BLAKE, widow of William B. BLAKE, Sr., founder and long-time editor of the Wrest Virginian News, died Friday evening, March 13, 1942, at her home in Ronceverte. In October last she passed her 91st birthday. She was born October 6, 1850, near Mount Solon, Augusta County, Va., daughter of the late Strother and Sarah MILLER HORNE. Before her marriage, both she and her husband were connected with the music and book publishing house of Ruebush, Kieffer & Co., at Dayton, Va. And lived there until 1889, when Mr. BLAKE disposed of his interests in the concern and they moved to Ronceverte, to become a partner in a newly-established newspaper, the Valley Messenger, which later was merged with THE NEWS, established as a separate paper in 1897 and combined in 1901. Her husband preceded her in death, December 4, 1938. Besides the present publishers of this paper, Wm. B. BLAKE, Jr. And Edw.L. BLAKE, two other sons and a daughter survive. They are Charles S. BLAKE of Somerset, Ky., And Robert Russell BLAKE of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Mrs. J. Wade BELL, Louisbourg; four grandsons, four granddaughters and two great-grandchildren also survive. Funeral arrangements were made in accordance with several requests, a brief service for the family and relatives proceeded a simple funeral service at the grave in Riverview Cemetery at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Rev. W. Carroll THORN, of the Episcopal Church, read these services. Pallbearers were: Warren GRAVES, J. William LEE, Edgar F. DICKSON, Eugene STONE, James J. GILHOOLEY, O. E. YOUNG, John YOUNG and Harvey HANDLEY. The last seventeen months of her full and worthy life were inactive only because a hip injury limited her to a wheel-chair and bed. She was fortunate in being attended through this period faithfully, tenderly by Miss Anna REYNOLDS, as nurse and constant companion. With whom a friendship had been formed as a neighbor before her misfortune, growing to mutual affection as time passed.

OUR MOTHER.....(Continued for Alice Mary Horne Blake.)

With the passing of our mother last Friday, not only the editors and publishers in a personal sense lost their mother, but in a very real sense this newspaper lost its mother too. She felt herself a part of it. This newspaper has been blessed by her deep interest and helpfulness from its founding almost to her very last hours. Up to November 1940, she sought ways to help out with its production. In the early days it was to help with the hand folding before the machine, and all through the years a regular task, rarely missed for any reason, was the single-wrapping. She insisted upon doing this long after she could not conceal the slowing of age and against orders, even threats, for she did not "take orders from her boys."

Early the morning of November 6, 1940, she fell while starting her household duties for the day and sustained a hip injury which ended many of her activities. Becoming resigned to a wheelchair was not to her liking, and she lived not only hopefully but expectantly that she would be restored to her feet, that she would again take up the active duties that she enjoyed, that she could help instead of being helped. More poignant than the shock of injury, possibly, was her thought that her ability for usefulness might be ended. Although not all those last months were pain and unhappiness to her, they were far from what suited her active, wholly unselfish, helpful nature.

Our mother passed away Friday the 13th. Being what she was, besides the most wonderful mother and remarkable woman on earth in many respects, she been conscious, untortured by pain, she would have given some sign of recognizing the coincidence, for rare wit was a part of her, and she paid old-fashioned deference to most of the common superstitions—planted things by the moon and the almanac and accepted with a wry wince that was pure make-up all chiding for arranging that no important work was started on a Friday, and the like.

Some things dear to obituary writers are omitted only at pain of creating misunderstanding. "Ma" BLAKE was firm and steadfast in her faith and deeply religious, though not a church woman,. Largely through pressure of home duties she became an individualist in religion. In girl-hood and early womanhood she held church connection, taught in Sunday School, worked daily in an atmosphere of sacred music. She was, indeed, credited with the origin of a remark, quoted anonymously perhaps to this time, and at once characteristic of her wit and realistic attitude toward sanctity, In a church group which was discussing the comparative religious power of two brothers who were called to the ministry from one Virginia family, she observed that "John was called by God and his brother David. Her life summed up religion, ethics, love, in three words of increasing crescendo—she gave, gave, gave, "She expected no return; she received 20 years more than the Biblical span in which to give more.

This is the end of all the wonderful items saved for us by Sarah V. HILL MACMILLIAN.

I have saved for last the obituary, a shortened Editorial of the above Alice Mary HORNE BLAKE's husband, William Burdine BLAKE.

A gentle soul passed out peacefully at about 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, December 4 1938, that of William Burdine BLAKE, whose name and spirit have been connected with this newspaper since its founding. He had long since passed the allotted span of three score and ten—nearly seventeen years beyond them—but fortunately contrary to what we are given to expect, these borrowed years were spent comfortably, happily and contentedly, although the last three years his inclination was to remain in bed and pass away the time reading. Wednesday his frail body fell prey to a cold and pneumonia rapidly developed. Only during this period did his body suffer wracking and his spirit became depressed. It would be difficult to speak of this life, fuller than ordinary and good in its works, without encomium to the living—one who was by his side more than 60 years, ministering with unfaltering vigil to the care of his naturally frail physique and, heedless for herself, lighting his burdens daily. Although two years his senior in age, his faithful helpmate survives and continues active in her 90th year. His newspaper career and his residence in West Virginia and Ronceverte have been concurrent—about 51 years—making him eligible to membership in te "50 Year Club" of the West Virginia Newspaper Council. Four members of this honorary organization now survive. Born at Ironton, Ohio, January 21, 1852, a son of Burdine and Mary Ellen MURRAY BLAKE, the family moved to London, Ohio, when he was an infant. There the third year of the Civil War found him motherless and the youngest of three boys, at the age of 12. Desiring to be with his father, and passing for 16, he was accepted in his father's company of the 154th Ohio Infantry, as a drummer boy and messenger, and saw service and participated in minor engagements along the northern border of West Virginia, in the Antietam section of Pennsylvania and adjacent Maryland. He received a bullet wound through the hand during his service with the Union Army. Returning ro London, Ohio, after the War, he served an apprenticeship in a local newspaper office, and at a very early age worked on newspapers in Springfield, Columbus and Cincinnati. His next older brother, the late Daniel F. BLAKE, of Kansas City, Mo., had made a connection with an ambitious foundling publishing business in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. At Singers Glen, where Solomon, Timothy and Benj. FUNK were putting together a venture in music publishing. Believing that his heath was being impaired by night work in stuffy quarters on daily newspapers, he readily accepted a call in 1872, at 20 to the embryo business that grew and flourished for many years in the Virginia Valley. Soon after he joined them, the FUNKS merged their forces with a rival concern and the business moved from "the Glen" to nearby Dayton as the Ruebush, Kieffer Company. Aldine S. KIEFFER, a Southern poet of note, was one of this company of idyllic spirits. These were years of a musical awakening in the rural South, of singing masters and singing schools, teaching the evangelical power of the hymns produced prolifically during the period. In its heyday, this concern employed 25 to 30 people directly, and many more indirectly, issued thousands, perhaps millions of hymnals and song books which circulated throughout the South, and also issued a monthly journal of poetry and music, The Musical Million. More or less in connection with it, but certainly because of it, a seminary of music was established and still runes through now perhaps with less emphasis than then on music. From it also were released the traveling army of old-time singing teachers who held forth in rural schools and churches. Because organs were rare, even in churches of the rural sections, the skill of singing "by note" had to be acquired, so that a song unheard could be sung by a congregation. The firm used a patented short cut to musical skill, a character or "shape" note which it believed would more rapidly spread musical knowledge At Dayton, Va., he met and married Alice Mary HORNE, of Augusta County, Va., who had become connected with the publishing business there as supervisor of the folding and bindery rooms, a division employing a dozen or more girls. Her skill and acquaintance with the production of the printed word, has been of no little help in his beginning here and his later work and that of his successors down to this day. She still insists upon performing a weekly task in the production of this newspaper and refuses to be denied. Coming to Roncverte in 1887, he became associated with the late J. W. HESS in the publication of "The Ronceverte News." a small purely local weekly launched about 1885 by Burke & Hess. Richard BURKE had just died and HESS was seeking a partner. After a year o two, HESS made a strike in a Virginia boom-town real estate speculation and withdrew. The scope of the paper was broadened somewhat and the name changed to THE VALLEY MESSENGER, continuing thus until 1901, when it was absorbed by the present paper. The West Virginia News had been established in 1897 as a Republican party organ, and both papers were issued from the same plant until they were merged He was editor and publisher of this paper until 1905, when his son, Wm. B. BLAKE, Jr., became his partner and was co-editor and publisher until 1920., when a younger son, Edward L. BLAKE became associate editor and publisher, and he retired with the honorary title of editor emeritus, continuing some years after that as the contributor of the column he originated-"Bottled in Bond Besides his widow, four sons and a daughter survive. They are Charles S. BLAKE, of Somerset, Ky., Robert Russell BLAKE, of Winston-Salem, N. C., Mrs. J. Wade BELL, of Louisbourg, and the publishers of this paper.
